Estimate Loss At One Million

Three Buildings Gutted By Fire

Livonia Man Heart Recipient

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A 43-year-old heavy equipment operator was described in "good shape" after a seven-hour operation today in which the heart of a 24-year-old man was transplanted into his chest cavity to replace his "volleyball-size" organ.

The size of the heart—five times normal—presented some surgical problems, since the new and smaller heart occupied less space, a spokesman said.

The recipient, Gerald Kenneth Rector of suburban Livonia, became Michigan's third heart transplant patient when the operation began at 10:40 p.m. Sunday at University of Michigan hospital. It ended at 5:40 a.m. today.

Michigan's two earlier heart recipients, P.T. Barnum of Kalamazoo and Donald Kaminski of Alpena, have returned home following the University Hospital operations.

"Wanted It This Way"

Rector had been suffering from cardiomyopathy or degeneration of the heart muscle. He has not worked for the last two years.

Rector's new heart came from Roland J. Hoag, 24, of Westland, who died of a cerebral aneurism, or a weak blood vessel in the brain.

Hoag's wife, Roberta, said "He would have wanted it this way. He was the sort of guy who would give you the shirt off his back. He was a very kind-hearted guy."

Hoag, a Ford Motor Co. product techniaian, was operated on twice in Detroit during the last week for his brain condition. However, he was brought to U-M hospital when his brain waves flattened out and it became apparent the operations were unsuccessful, a hospital spokesman said.

Heart Size

Rector, whose family was at the hospital, was transported to the cardiac recovery unit, where he is expected to remain for several days.

An endo - tracheal tube and a respirator were being used to aid his breathing. His pulse was reported at 90, with blood pressure at 120 over 80. Both are considered normal.

A spokesman said the size of his faulty heart presented complications during surgery, but it would be unlikely to present problems during his recovery.

FIREMEN THROW THREE streams of water at the Goodman Division offices on Ludington St. Sunday at the height of the fire which destroyed three business buildings in downtown Escanaba. Cause Of Blaze Remains Unkown

BY CLINT DUNATHAN

Escanaba's most disastrous fire in years struck a business block on Ludington St. shortly before noon Sunday, causing damage that Fire Chief Palmer Derouin estimated to be "in the $1 million range."

"That's unofficial," he added. "But I would say the loss would be in the $1 million range — and as yet we don't know what loss is covered by insurance."

No injuries and no loss of life were the only cheerful aspects of the report from the firemen who today were confirming this with a check-out on whereabouts of second floor apartment dwellers.

Discover Fire

The fire destroyed the Felton Radio & TV Supply Co., building at 601 Ludington St.; gutted the Goodman Division, Calumet & Hecla, a unit of Universal Oil Products, and second-floor apartments at 605 Ludington; Richards Printing Shop and Monroe Calculating Machine Co. office at 609 Ludington.

Oliver F. Felton, proprietor of the radio and TV distributing firm, was working in the building at about 11:30 a.m. Sunday when he discovered the fire.

Felton discovered the fire in an office toward the front of the building and telephoned the department. "He said he looked toward the front of the building and saw flames," said Fire Chief Derouin.

"The fire must have been rolling around in a confined space to develop that much heat and explosive gas, for by the time the department got there the front windows in the building had blown out," Derouin explained.

"We don't know how the fire started," Derouin added, reporting that the office of the State Fire Marshal had been notified of the disaster.

Buildings Threatened

"This is routine for any fire in which there is a loss of $50,000 or more," he said. State Police Officers Wes Freeman or Don Urey of Marquette, who are assigned to the Fire Marshal's office, may be expected here for the investigation.

The Felton building is at Ludington and S. 6th St. and the flames, whipped by a strong southerly wind, for a time scattered sparks and firebrands to the north, threatening the Daily Press building.

To the west on the second floor of the Goodman Division building, which is owned by F. W. Schmitt, are apartments housing Susan Diehm, Mrs. Arvo (Gertude) Henrickson and Mrs. Esther V. Lorey. This building was completely gutted by the flames.

Apartment occupants were alerted by policemen to the danger as the fire spread and were assisted in leaving. To the west were the Richards' Printing, Irving Peterson Business Machines, and Provo Sign Service. Occupants of apartments include Mr. and Mrs. Ray Richards, Mrs. Ann Collins and James Wandahsega.

Israeli Planes Shell Arab Bases

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli warplanes attacked Jordan today for the second straight day, hitting suspected Arab guerrilla bases in the foothills of the Gilead Mountains southeast of the Sea of Galilee.

An army spokesman said four or five planes strafed and bombed Arab gun positions that fired missiles at Israeli settlements in the area Sunday night, touching off an artillery duel.

A Jordanian spokesman said the planes showered rockets, napalm and machine-gun fire on three towns. He added there were no casualties but an agricultural area was damaged.

Earlier Sunday Israeli planes raided three big Arab guerrilla bases in Jordan. The Israeli army said all planes returned safely, but in Amman a spokesman for the Al Fatah guerrilla organization claimed its antiaircraft guns downed six of the attacking jets. He said two crashed inside Jordan and the other four in Israeli territory.

One of the targets was only six miles from Amman: it was the closest attack to the Jordanian capital since the 1967 war.

A Jordanian spokesman said only civilian targets were hit, resulting in four dead and at least seven wounded. The Palestine Liberation Organization, the guerrilla coalition, said three guerrillas were killed and four wounded.

The PLO said the dead included Maj. Fayez Jarad, 30, "one of the chief guerrilla commanders."

The Israeli Knesset, parliament, gave overwhelming approval today to the new government headed by Golda Meir, 70-year-old former foreign minister. The vote was 84-12 with one abstention.

Prime Minister designate Golda Meir presented her new government to the Knesset today and made no changes in the late Levi Eshkol's Cabinet. She was expected to win a quick vote of confidence.

Mrs. Meir told the 120-man legislative assembly she would not accept any settlement imposed by the Big Four powers unless it agreed with Israel's terms. Reminding other countries they would never dream of entrusting the solution of their own problems to other parties, she said the small state of Israel asks them to understand "that in matters affecting our existence, no decision can be adopted without us, nor can any recommendation be formulated without our consent."

She said establishment of a stable peace in the region depends on the Arab states and reiterated Israel's insistence that it can come about only through direct negotiations.

She warned the Arab states that if war comes again, "there is no doubt in my heart we shall be victorious."

She'll Break Law As Bartender

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Pretty Judy Jarosak, a waitress in a taproom called "The Red Baron," says she plans to violate this week a city ordinance which forbids bartending by females.

She is backed by her boss, Ron Bergland, and the Minnesota Civil Liberties Union.

"I passed my bartenders test and now I want to earn a dependable income," the shapely blonde said Sunday. "I have a 9-year-old son and school expenses. You never know how much money you'll make as a waitress."

Airliner Crashes Into Residential Area

Plane Disaster Kills 155

MARACAIBO, Venezuela (AP) — The death toll in aviation's worst disaster reached 155 today as searchers combed through the wreckage of homes destroyed by the crash of a Venezuelan jetliner bound for Miami.

Five more persons died today from injuries suffered when the big VIASA airline DC9 with 84 persons aboard plunged into a residential area Sunday and exploded minutes after taking off from Grano de Oro airport.

All 74 passengers and 10 crew members, at least 47 of them U.S. citizens, were killed in the crash. Authorities estimated that at least 71 persons have perished on the ground and feared the total would increase as the grim search continues.

The DC9, powered by two turbofan engines mounted aft, had attained an altitude of only 150 feet when it faltered minutes after take off and plunged into a cluster of low cost homes in Maracaibo's La Trinidad and Ziruma districts. The area was quickly enveloped in flames.

No Trouble Reported

An airport official said the pilot reported no trouble and his last radio contact with the control tower was a routine request for permission to take off.

The plane lifted off the end of the runway, climbed to about 150 feet, then suddenly lost altitude and went down. The explosion appeared to have occurred when one of the plane's turbines grazed a high tension wire.

Fifteen other air crashes have taken more than 100 lives. The previous worst aviation accident occurred Dec. 16, 1960, when two airliners collided over New York City, killing 134 passengers and persons on the ground.

Used 10 Days

A policeman who was a witness said the plane lost altitude after taking off, hit a high tension pole, spun and fell in pieces on the residential districts of Ziruna and La Trinidad. The area on the outskirts of Maracaibo, Venezuela's principal oil center, is inhabited by about 15,000 Colombians, Venezuelans and Guajiro Indians.

The plane had been in service only 10 days. The flight originated in Caracas, 330 miles to the east, and picked up more passengers in Maracaibo. The airline said there were 74 passengers and a crew of 10 aboard.

The cause of the crash was not known, but authorities said they had recovered the plane's "black box" flight recorder and were studying the last moments of the flight. It was not known whether the pilot radioed any distress signal before he went down.

The 47 North Americans killed included five prize-winning salesmen for the Clark Equipment Co. of Battle Creek, Mich., and their wives. Their prizes had been vacations in Caracas.

Baseball Figures

Also killed were three Venezuelan baseball figures—Nestor Isaias Chavez, a pitcher on his way to the San Francisco Giants' training camp in Tucson, Ariz.; Antonio Herrera, owner of the Venezuelan Cardenales de Lar club, and Carlos Santeliz, a player with the Cardenales.

In one house national guardsmen found the charred bodies of two children, clutching the fire-scorched remains of a dog. In another house a woman's body was found hunched over that of a son she had tried to protect.

The government decreed three days of official mourning and President Rafael Caldera sent a message of condolence to the nation.

Venezuela's most recent commercial air disaster occurred last December when a Pan American Airways jet plunged into the sea about five minutes out of Caracas, killing 51 persons.

Irish Demands At Madison

Chicago River Flows Green

By The Associated Press

Hundreds of Americans turned up for the St. Patrick's Day parade in Dublin.

In Chicago, the Chicago River was dyed green for the occasion.

At Grogan's restaurant in South Boston you could order anything you wanted, but what you got was corn beef and cabbage.

They laughed in New York when told that Savannah, Ga., with a planned turnout of 10,000 or so, hoped to have the biggest parade in the country.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians, sponsor of the New York parade, counted on 345 contingents totaling 27,000 marchers, including 161 bands. It was New York's 207th annual show in honor of the saint who drove the snakes from the Emerald Isle.

Reunification

Prominent marchers in Dublin were Bobby Shriver, 14, and his sister Maria, 13, whose mother is Mrs. Sargent Shriver, sister of the late President John F. Kennedy.

The Irish tourist board said Americans were on hand in record numbers and that 400 of them were marching in the parade. The biggest single group, 200, came from Albany, N.Y.

Ireland's 86-year-old president, Eamon De Valera, issued a message of "good wishes to all our kinsfolk and friends beyond the seas."

Prime Minister Jack Lynch pledged his government would "promote the reunification of Ireland."

At the moment, the six counties of Northern Ireland are separated from the republic. As a symbolic protest against this situation, the New York parade marchers were ordered to wear black armbands. Said Michael Delehunty of Montclair, N.J., national president of the Hibernians fraternal organization:

"It is about time that the world paid some attention to the discrimination and suppression of religious and economic freedom in the six counties of Northern Ireland."

Daley Heads Parade

Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley enlisted William Jones, lord mayor of Waterford, Ireland, to help him lead the big annual parade from the green-dyed Chicago River down the mercantile artery of State Street

Waterford is the home town of Daley's paternal grandparents, and he visited there in 1964

William P. Fay, Ireland's ambassador to Washington, had a fresh shamrock flown in from the old country for President Nixon. The shamrock was potted for presentation in a vase engraved with a view of the White House and carrying the inscription:

"The White House, designed by James Hoban of Ireland."

Mrs. Fay had an illustrated book about Ireland as a gift for Mrs. Nixon. The President's wife, whose maiden name was Ryan, decided to call St. Patrick's Day her birthday, although actually she was 57 Sunday.

Irish For A Day

In South Boston, which many Irish Americans regard as a second capital of Eire, everybody was declared Irish for the day, including those from such outlying counties as Sicily, Poland, Lithuania and Africa.

In Madison, Wis., the Irish Students Association of the University of Wisconsin marked the day by issuing a list of demands.

They said they wanted the English language replaced by Gaelic in classrooms, lime juice instead of orange juice in the cafeteria dispensing machines, and one administration building painted green

Katie O'Callaghan, vice president of the association, said if the demands were not met students of Irish extraction would sit in classes and stare coldly at their instructors.

Crash Record

MARACAIBO, Venezuela (AP) — The VIASA airliner which crashed in a residential area Sunday at Maracaibo killing about 150 persons was the worst aviation disaster on record. Fifteen other crashes have claimed more than 100 lives.

Report Britain Set To Invade Caribbean Isle

LONDON (AP) — Britain was reported preparing contingency plans today for possible military landings in the rebel Caribbean island of Anguilla.

The Foreign Office, Defense Ministry and Prime Minister Harold Wilson's office declined comment beyond describing the reports as speculation.

However, qualified informants said the defense and overseas policy committee of the Cabinet on Friday ordered the preparation of various contingency plans designed to end the proclaimed independence of Anguilla, which broke away from the St. Kitts-Nevis-Anguilla Federation in mid-1967.

The crisis over the future of the 35-square-mile territory came to a head last week when a British Foreign Office minister, William Whitlick, was forced at gunpoint to leave Anguilla. He had proposed a new constitutional arrangement that he hoped would be accepted by the 7,000 islanders and their president, Robert Webster, whom Britain does not recognize.

One complication is that, when Prime Minister Ian Smith's white settler regime seized independence for Rhodesia in 1965, Britain refused to use force to reassert its authority.

Using force against Webster and his people, who are black, could lead to a charge that Britain was applying one standard for whites and another harsher standard for nonwhites.

'Soapy,' Wife Given Warning

MANILA (AP) — The Manila Chronicle editorially warned outgoing U.S. Ambassador G. Mennen Williams and his wife Sunday that "consequences will be unpleasant" if they disregard a law prohibiting the transfer from this country of Philippine cultural properties.

The former Michigan governor and his wife have been purchasing antiques, relics and other cultural artifacts.

"If the ambassador is wise," the Chronicle said "He will not spoil his term here because he and his wife cannot quell their passion for primitive accumulation."

The editorial followed a similar warning from the director of the National Museum, Gemma Araneta, that the law governing disposition of cultural properties must be obeyed.

Earlier, a Chronicle columnist had called upon authorities to prevent the transfer from this country of the artifacts Ambassador and Mrs. Williams have been purchasing.

The U.S. Embassy has declined comment.

License Sales Signal Big Year

LANSING (AP)—Early car license plate sales indicate Michigan could be on the way to a banner automotive sales year, reports Secretary of State James Hare

Hare said license plate sales through March 6 this year were more than 250,000 above the same period last year.

Plate sales for the period this year hit 3,782,097. This was compared with 3,528,097 during the same period last year.

Hare termed the increase "nothing short of phenomenal."

American Airlines Votes On Strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Striking American Airlines employes will vote Wednesday on a proposed agreement to end the 19-day walkout which has grounded the nation's second largest air carrier.

If the new pact is ratified, a union spokesman said, the workers will return to their jobs starting at 11 p.m. Wednesday.

Top officials of the Transport Workers Union said they reached tentative agreement with the company early Sunday. The proposed pact was approved unanimously later in the day by the union's full negotiating committee of 22 presidents and chairmen of locals in the system's 10 major cities.

In one house national guardsmen found the charred bodies of two children, clutching the fire-scorched remains of a dog. In another house a woman's body was found hunched over that of a son she had tried to protect.

The government decreed three days of official mourning and President Rafael Caldera sent a message of condolence to the nation.

Venezuela's most recent commercial air disaster occurred last December when a Pan American Airways jet plunged into the sea about five minutes out of Caracas, killing 51 persons.

Irish Demands At Madison

Chicago River Flows Green

By The Associated Press

Hundreds of Americans turned up for the St. Patrick's Day parade in Dublin.

In Chicago, the Chicago River was dyed green for the occasion.

At Grogan's restaurant in South Boston you could order anything you wanted, but what you got was corn beef and cabbage.

They laughed in New York when told that Savannah, Ga., with a planned turnout of 10,000 or so, hoped to have the biggest parade in the country.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians, sponsor of the New York parade, counted on 345 contingents totaling 27,000 marchers, including 161 bands. It was New York's 207th annual show in honor of the saint who drove the snakes from the Emerald Isle.

Reunification

Prominent marchers in Dublin were Bobby Shriver, 14, and his sister Maria, 13, whose mother is Mrs. Sargent Shriver, sister of the late President John F. Kennedy.

The Irish tourist board said Americans were on hand in record numbers and that 400 of them were marching in the parade. The biggest single group, 200, came from Albany, N.Y.

Ireland's 86-year-old president, Eamon De Valera, issued a message of "good wishes to all our kinsfolk and friends beyond the seas."

Prime Minister Jack Lynch pledged his government would "promote the reunification of Ireland."

At the moment, the six counties of Northern Ireland are separated from the republic. As a symbolic protest against this situation, the New York parade marchers were ordered to wear black armbands. Said Michael Delehunty of Montclair, N.J., national president of the Hibernians fraternal organization:

"It is about time that the world paid some attention to the discrimination and suppression of religious and economic freedom in the six counties of Northern Ireland."

Daley Heads Parade

Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley enlisted William Jones, lord mayor of Waterford, Ireland, to help him lead the big annual parade from the green-dyed Chicago River down the mercantile artery of State Street.

Waterford is the home town of Daley's paternal grandparents, and he visited there in 1964.

William P. Fay, Ireland's ambassador to Washington, had a fresh shamrock flown in from the old country for President Nixon. The shamrock was potted for presentation in a vase engraved with a view of the White House and carrying the inscription:

"The White House, designed by James Hoban of Ireland."

Mrs. Fay had an illustrated book about Ireland as a gift for Mrs. Nixon. The President's wife, whose maiden name was Ryan, decided to call St. Patrick's Day her birthday, although actually she was 57 Sunday.

Irish For A Day

In South Boston, which many Irish Americans regard as a second capital of Eire, everybody was declared Irish for the day, including those from such outlying counties as Sicily, Poland, Lithuania and Africa.

In Madison, Wis., the Irish Students Association of the University of Wisconsin marked the day by issuing a list of demands.

They said they wanted the English language replaced by Gaelic in classrooms, lime juice instead of orange juice in the cafeteria dispensing machines, and one administration building painted green.

Katie O'Callaghan, vice president of the association, said if the demands were not met students of Irish extraction would sit in classes and stare coldly at their instructors.

Crash Record

MARACAIBO, Venezuela (AP) — The VIASA airliner which crashed in a residential area Sunday at Maracaibo killing about 150 persons was the worst aviation disaster on record. Fifteen other crashes have claimed more than 100 lives.

Report Britain Set To Invade Caribbean Isle

LONDON (AP) — Britain was reported preparing contingency plans today for possible military landings in the rebel Caribbean island of Anguilla.

The Foreign Office, Defense Ministry and Prime Minister Harold Wilson's office declined comment beyond describing the reports as speculation.

However, qualified informants said the defense and overseas policy committee of the Cabinet on Friday ordered the preparation of various contingency plans designed to end the proclaimed independence of Anguilla, which broke away from the St. Kitts-Nevis-Anguilla Federation in mid-1967.

The crisis over the future of the 35-square-mile territory came to a head last week when a British Foreign Office minister, William Whitlick, was forced at gunpoint to leave Anguilla. He had proposed a new constitutional arrangement that he hoped would be accepted by the 7,000 islanders and their president, Robert Webster, whom Britain does not recognize.

One complication is that, when Prime Minister Ian Smith's white settler regime seized independence for Rhodesia in 1965, Britain refused to use force to reassert its authority.

Using force against Webster and his people, who are black, could lead to a charge that Britain was applying one standard for whites and another harsher standard for nonwhites.

'Soapy,' Wife Given Warning

MANILA (AP) — The Manila Chronicle editorially warned outgoing U.S. Ambassador G. Mennen Williams and his wife Sunday that "consequences will be unpleasant" if they disregard a law prohibiting the transfer from this country of Philippine cultural properties.

The former Michigan governor and his wife have been purchasing antiques, relics and other cultural artifacts.

"If the ambassador is wise," the Chronicle said, "He will not spoil his term here because he and his wife cannot quell their passion for primitive accumulation."

The editorial followed a similar warning from the director of the National Museum, Gemma Araneta, that the law governing disposition of cultural properties must be obeyed.

Earlier, a Chronicle columnist had called upon authorities to prevent the transfer from this country of the artifacts Ambassador and Mrs. Williams have been purchasing.

The U.S. Embassy has declined comment.

License Sales Signal Big Year

LANSING (AP)—Early car license plate sales indicate Michigan could be on the way to a banner automotive sales year, reports Secretary of State James Hare.

Hare said license plate sales through March 6 this year were more than 250,000 above the same period last year.

Plate sales for the period this year hit 3,782,097. This was compared with 3,528,097 during the same period last year.

Hare termed the increase "nothing short of phenomenal."

American Airlines Votes On Strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Striking American Airlines employes will vote Wednesday on a proposed agreement to end the 19-day walkout which has grounded the nation's second largest air carrier.

If the new pact is ratified, a union spokesman said, the workers will return to their jobs starting at 11 p.m. Wednesday.

Top officials of the Transport Workers Union said they reached tentative agreement with the company early Sunday. The proposed pact was approved unanimously later in the day by the union's full negotiating committee of 22 presidents and chairmen of locals in the system's 10 major cities.

After 82 Years Of St. Patrick's Day Greening

Ancient Order Of Hibernians Dies

By JEAN WORTH

This is the first time in 83 years that Escanaba is observing St. Patrick's Day without a local chapter of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in America to lead the celebration.

Division 1, Delta County, Ancient Order of Hibernians, was organized on March 11, 1886 and last year it surrendered its charter because membership had declined to three persons and that is too few to meet the minimum membership requirements of the AOH, even though they are all Irishmen.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians was founded in 1836 for the purpose of promoting the welfare of persons of Irish descent in the United States, with its members eligible for life insurance benefits. The membership rose with the great tides of migration to the United States and dwindled as the Irish were assimiliated in the American melting pot and Rosie O'Grady wed Torvald Okerblom and Pat O'Toole married Gertie Schwartz.

Gladstone Unit

Gladstone also had a unit of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Division 2, and an Auxiliary, like Escanaba, but it surrendered its charter earlier as its membership expired.

In the early 1900s, the Escanaba Division had a membership of over 600 and the Auxiliary a smaller number.

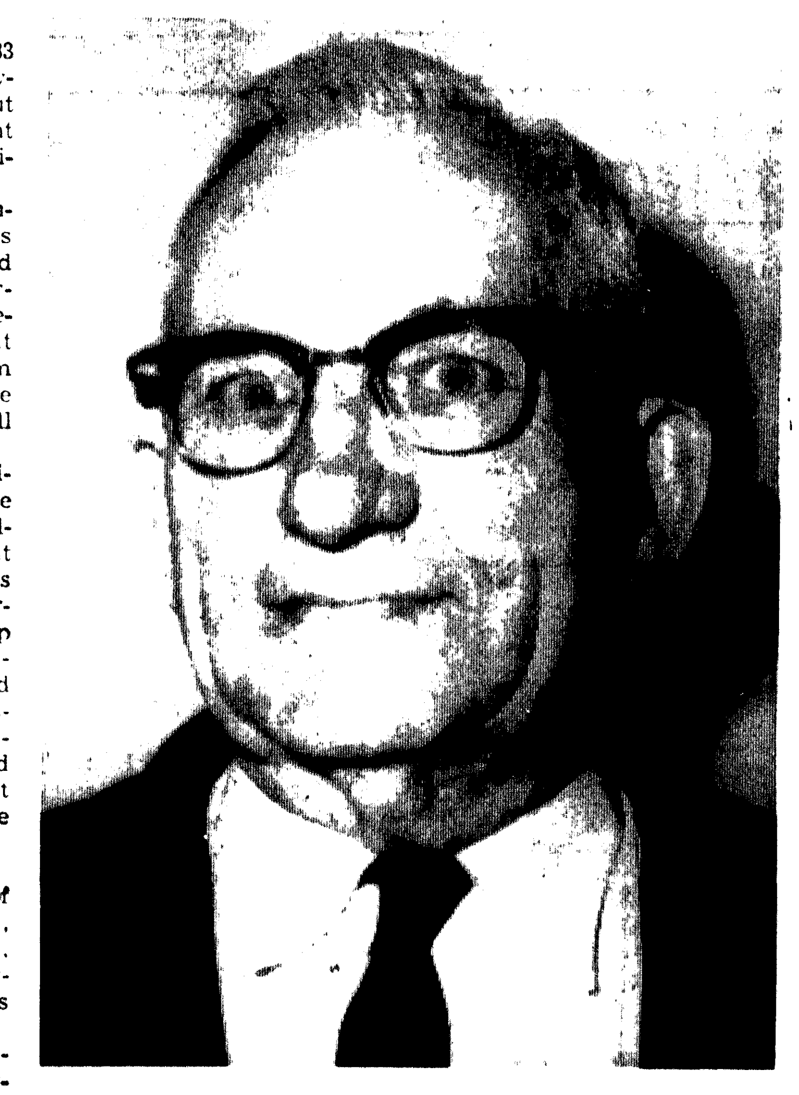
In the early observances of St. Patrick's Day in Escanaba March 17 was a red letter day on the calendar. There was a parade which marched the length of Ludington St., behind the leadership of James Powers, the father of Thomas L. Powers, retired C&NW Railway conductor who lives at 112 1st Ave. S.

Ireland Celebrant

James Powers was usually mounted on a white horse and he turned it at 12th St., and led the parade off Ludington and south to St. Patrick's Church, where a Solemn High Mass was celebrated. There's a shamrock in the ceiling of the sanctuary of the church and its favorite altar cloths are green.

During the pastorate of the Rev. Father Francis Xavier Barth many noted Irishmen were invited to attend the St. Patrick's Day services. One year Archbishop John Ireland of St. Paul was celebrant of the Mass.

The St. Patrick's Day supper was traditionally served in Peterson's Dance Hall. (There's national apostasy for you, but Escanaba lacked an O'Rourke's Hall.) After the meal a home talent performance was presented in the connecting Peterson's Opera House. The building still stands, at 1st Ave. S., and 4th St., and was more recently called the Coliseum and now is the furniture warehouse of Home Supply Co.



Emerson B. Harvey

Finley High Notes

The show usually had a speaker who dwelt on the glories of Tara and Avoca, on the Irish people and their troubled history. A favorite was Hon. John Power, an attorney who had offices in the building which is now the Escanaba Daily Press building.

The well remembered performers included Ralph R. Finley, a tenor in the Irish tradition of Tralee, whose accompaniment was played by Mrs. Catherine Ramspeck, who was the organist at St. Patrick's Church, and the late Mrs. William Shepeck, a sweet voiced soloist. James Conahan did Irish jigs and Robert Pryal told Irish stories.

Atty. Joseph Cuddy had an Irish story that Old Timers remember. In early Irish history, he said, there was disagreement about St. Patrick's birthday, some saying that it was on March 8 and others that it was on March 9. Since the Irish couldn't agree, said Cuddy, they added the two dates and decided to celebrate on March 17.

Life Insurance

Members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians carried life insurance policies for $500 or $1,000 at very low premium rates. The rates were so low, said Emerson Harvey, that when there was a death, fraternal life insurance societies often had difficulty in paying the policy award. The state finally regulated such fraternal underwriters to firm up their ability to pay.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians turned their insurance program over to an Old Line Life company which has paid the beneficiaries on schedule ever since, but the Ladies' Auxiliary of the AOH didn't do this, indicating, perhaps, a greater feminine Irish resistance toward solvency or a pleasure in keeping old ways.

A new ruling of the national Ancient Order of Hibernains that a division having fewer than 15 members could not continue made it necessary for Division 1 of Delta County to transfer to another division. This was done in 1968 when Delta 1 transferred to Division 1 of Kent County at Grand Rapids.

Three Still Alive

The surviving members are: Msgr. Martin B. Melican, retired pastor of St. Patrick's Church and former dean of the Delta County Catholic clergy, and a former state chaplain of the AOH, who resides at the Bishop Noa Home; John Kidd, retired C&NW Railway conductor; and Emerson B. Harvey, retired funeral director of the Allo Funeral Home, who had been president of the division for more than 30 years.

When St. Patrick's Church was built in 1902-03 a large window was given to the church by the Ancient Order of Hibernians and a second one was given by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the AOH. St. Patrick's first pastor was the Rev. Joseph Langan and he was followed by Fathers F. X. Barth, John Mockler, Thomas Kennedy, Martin B. Melican and the present pastor, the Rev. Charles Carmody, who keeps the celtic tradition in spades.

Luxemberger

When the Ancient Order of Hibernians marched in Escanaba to celebrate St. Patrick's Birthday on March 17, they often had a band. Since the city, although it had many Irish residents and a St. Patrick's Church, had no McNamara's Band, it did the best it could.

The Luxemberger Band used to head the St. Patrick's Day parades as a neighborly gesture in pre-ecumenical days.

There are still many Luxembergers and many Irish in Escanaba, but no Luxemberger Band, no St. Patrick's Day parade and this year for the first time in 8 decades there's no Ancient Order of Hibernians.

Local Members

Members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in Escanaba listed in Emerson Harvey's records include: Dennis Curran, train caller for the C&NW; John Curran, E&LS Railroad; William J. Hanrahan and James J. Hanrahan, Hanrahan Brothers grocery stores; Anthony J. Manley, Escanaba city treasurer; Conrad J. McCauley, retired at Garden City, Mich.; Robert C. Pryal, Pryal Insurance Agency; John Cleary and James Cleary, Cleary Brothers Wholesale Liquor Store; Gerald Cleary, Wadhams Oil Co., Democratic county chairman;

Clyde J. Byrns, owner of the Delta Hotel and Delta County supervisor; John J. Tolan, Escanaba police chief; James Tolan, manufacturer of JT cigars; Hon. John Power, atorney; John B. Moran, manager, Escanaba Street Car Co.; James Powers, city councilman and St. Patrick's Day parade leader; Eugene Sullivan, saloonkeeper and custodian of the Knights of Columbus Club; Eugene Sullivan, Delft Theater violinist and insurance writer;

W. Brennan, grocer;

Patrick Gannon, proprietor, Colonial Hotel; Stephen J. Connors and Patrick Wade, C&NW conductors; John A. Fisher, C&NW engineer and state perisdent of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, (whose hobby was pepping up the AOH and admitting social members); John A. Fisher Jr., C&NW machinist; Mike Snyder and Charles Snyder, Snyder Brothers Saloon; Kevill Murphy, C&NW caller and Delta County coroner;

Capt. B. J. Gallagher, Gallagher Marine Construction Co.; and his brother, James Gallagher; Maurice Coll, Tully Gallagher and Charles Gallagher, saloon and boarding house operators; Francis McCauley, K of C. Club custodian; Rev. Joseph Langan and Rev. F. X. Barth, pastors of St. Patrick's; Rev. Owen Bennett, pastor of All Saints, Gladstone;

Joseph Carney, Delta sheriff and president of the AOH; Walter O'Connell, C&NW machinist and secretary of the AOH; Charles Ford, Ford Fuel Yard, state president of the AOH; Con Gallagher, city park superintendent and president of the AOH; James H. Kennelly, C&NW engineer; James D. Doherty, grocer and justice of the peace; Capt. Charles McCauley, master of the steamer Maywood; John Colbert, AOH secretary; and John Conahan.

Coretta King Gives Sermon

LONDON (AP) —The widow of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., has become the first woman ever to preach a regular Sunday service in St. Paul's Cathdral.

Coretta King spoke from the same pulpit where her late husband a Baptist, preached in 1964, the first non-Anglican to do so.

Mrs. King, who said she felt "a deep sense of humility and a painful sense of inadequacy," delivered a 15-minute sermon to 2,000 churchgoers.

"Many despair at all the evil and unrest and disorder in the world today," she said. "But beyond the turbulence I see a new social order, I see the dawn of a new day."

Accident Ruled In North Central Crash At O'Hare

CHICAGO—A verdict of accidental death has been returned by a Cook County coroner's jury in the inquest into the crash of a North Central Airlines plane which took the life of a former Bark River resident and 27 other persons Dec. 27.

Acting Deputy Coroner John H. Haigh said the verdict of accidental death was reached because of the experience of the crew and the condition of the plane.

Haigh, a former B-17 pilot for the Air Force, testified at the inquest that the turbo-prop aircraft appeared to be coming in for a normal landing at O'Hare Field despite low clouds and poor visability.

Investigation showed, he said, that the plane appeared to make an abrupt turn to the left, almost going into a vertical bank about 100 feet above the runway.

Haigh said a voice recording in the cockpit indicated the pilot either saw or heard something unusual which made him decide to try to increase power at that point.

When the plane swerved to the left, he said, the left wing touched ground, broke off and the plane crashed into a Braniff Airlines hangar.

The impact of the crash automatically turned on the hangar's sprinkler system. The sprinklers, which doused the plane with water, along with the quick response of the Chicago Fire Department and airport emergency crews were the only reasons the loss of life was not greater, he said.

Mary Jean Peltier, 41, of Dayton, Ohio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Peltier of Bark River, died in the crash. She had spent Christmas in Milwaukee with her sister and was returning to Dayton at the time of the crash.

New Cliffs Mine Tops In 1st Year

On March 17 the Sherman Mine at Temagami, Ontario produced its one millionth ton of high grade iron ore pellets on its first anniversary of pelletizing operations.

"This is quite an accomplishment for a plant with an annual capacity of 1,000,000 tons," said Burt Boyum, mine manager, 'because of numerous adversities that could be attendant to the start up of a new plant."

The Sherman Mine is a joint venture of Dominion Foundries and Steel, Ltd., at Hamilton, Ontario and Tetapaga Mining Co., Ltd., a wholly owned subsidiary of The Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Co., Cleveland. The total output is shipped by rail to DOFASCO's steel making facilities.

New Cliffs Mine Tops In 1st Year

On March 17 the Sherman Mine at Temagami, Ontario produced its one millionth ton of high grade iron ore pellets on its first anniversary of pelletizing operations.

"This is quite an accomplishment for a plant with an annual capacity of 1,000,000 tons," said Burt Boyum, mine manager, 'because of numerous adversities that could be attendant to the start up of a new plant."

The Sherman Mine is a joint venture of Dominion Foundries and Steel, Ltd., at Hamilton, Ontario and Tetapaga Mining Co., Ltd., a wholly owned subsidiary of The Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Co., Cleveland. The total output is shipped by rail to DOFASCO's steel making facilities.

Legion Marks 50th Year:

Varnum Deplores Campus Disorder

Cloverland Post No. 82 American Legion's 50th anniversary birthday banquet heard Rep. Charles Varnum speak out against student disorders on state campuses.

"When schools the size of Northern Michigan and Ferris are faced with sit-ins and willful destruction of property by a small minority of students it is time that we as citizens become alarmed," he said.

He said that even some of Michigan's high schools face the same problem, and gave the Legion members a personal reason for making a stand on the problem.

Varnum quoted a letter from a mother whose son was harassed by catcalls received on a Michigan college campus because the son was wearing his R.O.T.C. uniform that evening. He added that he is in favor of the House's recent stand commending students and school officials for opposing campus disruptions .

C. Elmer Olson served as tosatmaster for the evening and introduced city guests, Mayor Cecil B. Chase and his wife, and County Supervisor Harold Vanlerberghe.

Out of town Legion guests from neighboring posts were Rock, Manistique, Gladstone and Escanaba River Post.

The ladies of the Auxiliary with Dorothy Boyle, chairman, served the banquet. Group singing concluded the evening.

Troopers Probe Entry Of Market, Four Cottages

Breaking and enterings at Pike's Market, Rapid River, and four cottages on the Stonington Peninsula are under investigation by State Police.

Troopers said a large quantity of beer was taken at Pike's Market, but nothing appeared missing from the cottages, which are located along County Rd. K-26.

The breaking and enterings were reported by Herbert Cornell of Kipling, who was taking care of a cottage owned by his brother-in-law, Dr. William Stromberg, Wilmette, Ill. Besides the Stromberg cottage, officers said cottages owned by Robert Baycliff, Detroit, George McKinty, Dearborn Heigths, and Gerald Stoik of Florida also were entered.

Troopers reported that windows at a cottage owned by Melvin Sebeck, 1708 Dakota Ave., Gladstone, were shot out. The camp is also located on County Rd. K-26 at its intersection with County Rd. 503.

Hospital

Mrs. John Arduin of Newberry, formerly of Hermansville, is a surgical patient at St. Francis Hospital. Her room is 312.

More people get more news from newspapers than all other sources combined.

Arrest Made In B&E Case

Raymond Couinard, Rte. 1, Gladstone, has been arrested by State Police and charged with breaking and entering.

Officers said he was arrested after investigation of the March 1 breaking and entering of the Bar-B-Que restaurant at Rapid River. He was released to appear in District Court after posting $100 bond, officers said.

COLLECTION OF GARBAGE IN THE ALLEYS IN ESCANABA WILL BEGIN ON A REGULAR SCHEDULE STARTING MONDAY, MARCH 24.

CITY OF ESCANABA

A. O. Murray Accident Victim

Alexander O. Murray, 78, of Rte. 3, Rapid River (Isabella) died Saturday afternoon following an automobile accident in Florida.

He was born July 29, 1890 in Pennsylvania and was employed as a section hand for the Soo Line Railway, retiring 18 years ago.

Mr. Murray was a member of the Bethany Lutheran Church of Isabella and the Walter Cole Post 301, American Legion of Rapid River, serving as chaplain for the Post.

He is survived by his widow, Isabella; four sons, James of Appleton, Wis., William and Franklin of Brandon, Fla., and Alexander J. of Memphis, Tenn.; one daughter, Mrs. Roy (Lillias) Fagan of Green Bay; 18 grandchildren and two brothers, William Hornig of Meyersdale, Pa. and Paul Hornig of Wilkensburg, Pa.; four sisters, Mrs. Ruth Holland of Akron, Ohio, Mrs. Agnes Mann, Mrs. Beatrice Wright and Mrs. Margaret Hentz, all of Wilkensburg, Pa.

Friends may call at the Anderson Funeral Home from 4 to 9 p.m. Tuesday and the body will be removed to the Bethany Lutheran Church at Isabella at 10 a.m. Wednesday and services will be conducted at 11 a.m. with the Rev. Ingmar Levin officiating. Walter W. Cole Post will conduct the military rites. Burial will be in Moss Lake Cemetery.

Briefly Told

Phillip W. Cochrane, 45, of 611 N. 23rd St., is to appear in District Court Thursday, March 20, in connection with a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicants. City police halted Cochrane at 10:15 p. m. Saturday in the 1600 block, Ludington St. He is at liberty on bond.

Parking Curbs Eased In City

Escanaba is coming out from under the heaviest snows in 40 years and the city is relaxing its emergency parking restrictions which were posted to help the city cope with the traffic impediments caused by the snow.

City Manager George Harvey said that today is the last day for 90-day suspension of the two hour parking limit in city parking lots. The restriction applies again on Tuesday.

Harvey said that the ordinance prohibition of overnight parking on the streets will not legally expire until April 1, but because of the mild weather and improved street condition the overnight ban will not be enforced.

The city's Christmas tree picket — interruped by heavy January snowfall—has been resumed, but is still poky in places because the trees still are embedded in snowbanks.

Harvey said that the alley pickup of garbage will be resumed next week. Street pickup will prevail through this week.

Supervisors Meet Tuesday Night

The Delta County Board of Supervisors will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the courtroom of the Delta County Building.

According to the agenda released today by William E. Butler, county clerk, the board will consider bids for painting, screening and a clothes dryer for the county jail, review five communications and hear a report from the meeting of the Pinecrest Medical Facility Board of Trustees meeting.

The communications concern the propsed abandonment of the Chicako & North Western's Felch branch, a U.S. Forest Service proposal to purchase additional land in Delta County, and action by the Delta County Road Commission and State Highway Dept. regarding a suggestion that the state take over maintenance of County Rd. 483 on the Garden Peninsula.

Former Resident Of Escanaba Dies In Fire

Marine Sgt. James A. DeRouin, 22, a former resident of Escanaba, was killed Friday when a flash fire started at the fuel depot at Andrews Air Force Base, Washington, D. C., where he was stationed.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew DeRouin of Muskegon, formerly of Escanaba.

Survivors besides his parents include grandparents, Mrs. Albert French and Mrs. Amelia Kidd of Escanaba and Edward Goodreau of Soo Hill, and two brothers, John and Jerry.

Funeral services, under the direction of Lee Funeral Home, Muskegon Heights, will be held at 9 a.m. Wednesday at Sacred Heart Church in Muskegon.

Sportsmen Ask Deer For Both Bow, Rifle Hunts

Delegates from member clubs of the Michigan United Conservation Clubs in the Upper Peninsula meeting in pre-convention session at the Pioneer Motor Inn here on Sunday urged the MUCC request the state to permit the taking of a deer by bow and arrow and another by rifle by the same hunter in the same year.

The resolution, which passed narrowly, 7-6, cited that archery hunting takes few deer and that successful hunters are then barred from participation in the rifle season.

In other actions on a series of proposed resolutions:

1. Prohibiting the hunting of deer with shotgun and buckshot, as use of .22 caliber rim rifles are now outlawed. Rejected, 8-3.

2. Abolish regulation requiring that a bow be cased when transported in an automobile. Approved, 9-2.

3. Replace present paper deer tag with old type metal tags. Rejected, 6-4.

4. Restoration of bounty of $5 on fox and bobcat. Rejected, 7-6.

5. Providing more places for licensing of servicemen hunters and fishermen. Approved 11-0.

6. Because of hard winter toll of deer, that doe permit be replaced by a hunting party permit to take antlerless deer. Rejected 11-2.

7. Year around raccoon hunting in Menominee County. Approved 7-1.

8. Discontinue antlerless deer hunt for two years on a trial basis in all the Upper Peninsula. Rejected 9-5.

The meeting discussed Justice Eugene Black's opinion changing the historic definition of a "navigable" stream (open to public access) as one that would float a log.

Jerry Goodman, Iron River, regional vice president of the MUCC presided at the meeting.

Summit Meet Lasts 2 Hours

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — The Warsaw Pact summit meeting ended today scarcely two hours after it began, informed sources said.

Leaders of the seven pact countries signed a declaration and the final comunique. It was the shortest pact summit ever held, indicating that the documents had been prepared in advance.

According to the sources, the declaration was on European peace and dealt mainly with the German question. The communique was believed to deal also with Vietnam and the Middle East and Warsaw Pact matters.

The meeting was delayed at the start, prompting speculation that Soviet leaders wanted time for informal discussions with their East European allies on the Soviet-Red Chinese border conflict.

The Warsaw Pact is a military organization of Communist nations in Europe.

Colombian Plane Hijacked To Cuba

HAVANA (AP) — A Colombian airliner was hijacked to Cuba over the weekend by a man accompanied by a woman and a baby.

The DC6 of the Aerocondor Airline is expected to leave Cuba today with its other 36 passengers and crew of eight, the Swiss Embassy indicated.

The man carried a pistol when he took over the plane Saturday night as it flew toward San Andres, a Colombian island off Costa Rica.

It was the third Colombian airliner diverted to Cuba this year and the 23rd airliner hijacking of 1969.

Mrs. Odenbrett Dies Saturday In Marinette

Mrs. George Odenbrett, 73, of Rte. 2 Marinette, formerly of Escanaba, died Saturday morning at the Marinette General Hospital. Mrs. Odenbrett was Eva Rasmussen of Marinette before her marriage.

She is survived by her husband; one daughter, Mrs. Emil Fisher of Green Bay and a son, Harvey of Milwaukee, four grandchildren, two brothers, Harvey of Milwaukee, Victor of Quinnesec and a sister, Mrs. Arvid (Alta) Isaacson of Escanaba.

Friends may call at the Lein Funeral Home in Marinette after 4 p.m. today and funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the funeral home. Burial will be in Forest Home Cemetery.

Some day your kids will have problems as big as yours. But, if you haven't enough insurance, those problems may come at a bad time.

While they're still kids.

Prudential understands how many things you want to give your child. Perhaps the most important is childhood itself. But good intentions aren't always enough. If you haven't done enough providing for the future, your son might be exposed to a man's problems. Before he becomes a man.

PROTECT THOSE "GROWING UP YEARS". You can see to it that the family keeps going if you're not there. It's simple as Prudential's "continuing income" insurance.

Prudential's "continuing income" insurance can guarantee your family a monthly check month after month. Money to pay the mortgage or rent, buy the food and clothing, even help cover the cost of college.

WANT VS. AFFORD. This may be the kind of protection you want. But, you wonder, is it within your means? Easiest way to convince yourself: talk to your Prudential man. He's the expert at turning the protection you want into the protection you can afford.

It just goes to show that Prudential understands.

Fire Not Needed

Fire is a frightening thing, but too often its consequences are forgotten.

Sunday, Escanaba was provided a tragic reminder when a blaze which started in the Felton Radio & TV Supply Co. threatened to level an entire block on Ludington St.

Before the fire was finally controlled, the Felton Building, the Goodman Division offices of Calumet & Hecla Corp., Richards' Printing and apartments above Goodman Division and the print shop were almost total losses. There was smoke and water damage to other businesses further west.

Yet, despite the loss, it could have been worse.

Part of the block was saved and the fire was contained on the south side of the street, despite a strong wind which blew smoke and flaming debris across the street onto roofs of other buildings. There were no injuries reported.

The effort launched to contain the fire was a credit to the City of Escanaba and the neighboring communities of Gladstone, Bark River-Harris, Powers-Spalding and K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base, all of which sent men and equipment to the scene. Escanaba and State Police along with the Delta County Sheriff's Dept. assisted in controlling the crowd.

It was the kind of cooperative effort of which the area should be proud. Hopefully, it was the kind which won't be needed again.

Wonderful, Braves!

All Delta County is proud of Gladstone's wonderful Braves today.

They went right down to the finish in the Regional Basketball Tournament Class "B" play at Northern Michigan College Saturday night winning all the way with play marked by overall excellence and very few mistakes.

It took Menominee High School, winner of the "B" title for two years previously, five overtime periods to defeat the Braves. It was the longest basketball game ever played in the Upper Peninsula.

It's tough to lose in any situation, and especially so after such a valiant season as the Braves', but if you must lose you can hardly do it in a more gracious, courageous way than Gladstone did, scrapping down to the last basket.

Coach Bill Wood and his squad made us all proud of them. Menominee Coach Bob Krysiak said it for everyone when he declared in a victory statement that the Upper Peninsula would have been very well represented in Class "B" play downstate by the Braves.

Closing The Door?

James Earl Ray regrets that he has pleaded guilty to the slaying of Martin Luther King. So does the U. S. Justice Department — and the people of the United States.

For now there is to be no trial that would have shed light on an assassination that shocked the nation and brought whispers of "conspiracy" in the sometimes pathetic, always tragic dance of death that followed the slaying. Now there are questions that may never be answered, because Ray says he pleaded guilty because his attorney and Ray's brother "thought this was best and what I ought to do."

Now Ray is reported as seeking another attorney and presumably a new trial. He should be assisted, if he needs help — even at the expense of the government.

* * *

Questions unanswered, unless the Justice Department pursues the conspiracy allegation, are many.

Dr. King did not stay at his usual hotel stopping place in Memphis on that fatal day. How did Ray know where he was?

Who paid Ray or helped support him including his flight to Canada and then to England after the assassination?

What was Ray's motive — if he acted alone? The prosecution statement that "there was some indication he was a racist" demands more explanation if a motive is to be established.

There was a false broadcast by police about a white Mustang which led police astray. Who originated and was responsible for that?

* * *

Was Ray sacrificed by his fellow conspirators? That seems indicated by Ray himself, who now bitterly contends that he would have been better off to stand trial and face life sentence, rather than be persuaded into a guilty plea that brought him the stiffer 99-year penalty.

He would have been eligible for parole in 13 years and 7 months if he had been sentenced to life; but under the 99-year sentence he must serve at least 30 years.

"My attorney and my brother . . ." says Ray. They told him the best thing for him to do was to plead guilty, he said.

Back in April, 1968, the FBI charged in a federal action still pending against Ray that in Birmingham, Ala., he conspired "with a man — alleged to be his brother" to violate Dr. King's civil rights in that state.

* * *

The court has said in effect that justice has been done, that Ray has pleaded guilty and been sentenced for a crime — but there remains much more to be done if the shadows of conspiracy are to be erased.

The happening in that Memphis courtroom, in fact, raised as many questions as it answered about the assassination of Dr. King. Ray said himself that he disagreed with the theory that no conspiracy was involved, a theory that had been subscribed to by both the prosecution and the defense.

Hopefully the Justice Department in Washington will continue its investigation, for the circumstantial evidence is strong that more than Ray were involved.

You Can Stop Smoking If You Stop Fibbing

By MALCOLM WARD
In Georgia's Health

Since I quit smoking eight or nine years ago, I have become an authority on the subject. In fact, I have become what is known as an obnoxious non-smoker. Being a naturally kind person, I feel that it is my duty to pass on the good word If I could quit, anybody can quit.

In spite of all the rationalizations that smokers use to hypnotize themselves into thinking that they don't need to quit, most addicts live in secret fear that some day their doctor will make them quit.

Consider such feeble excuses as, "I smoke because I enjoy it." "They haven't really proved that smoking is bad for you." "Just as soon die of cancer as another disease." "There is little enough pleasure as it is without giving up something you like." "I've tried to quit, and I can't so I'm going to relax and enjoy it." These surely aren't the statements of thinking rational people or are they? Have you ever said, or thought, them?

* * *

The person who says, "I smoke because I want to," may think he is being honest with himself but what he really means is that he cannot imagine not smoking.

I am willing to admit that tobacco affects different people in different ways. Some people seem to be able to quit for a month or a year without any trouble at all, and then they start again. These people never had the habit the way I did or the way you have it.

This is written for those of you who can't survive without a cigarette in your mouth every 30 minutes or so. That is only a pack and a half a day and I was going at the rate of two to three packs a day. I managed to quit; so can you. At least you hope you can or you would not have read this far

Because smoking is as much a mental thing as it is physiological, the first thing you have to do is think in the right direction. Once you have examined the facts in a logical, dispassionate manner and ignored all the weak excuses that are based on your fear that you cannot quit, you will reach the inexorable conclusion that you are stupid if you continue to smoke. It takes more will power to admit to yourself that you are stupid than it does to quit smoking.

* * *

Up to now you have refused to admit that you really want to quit because you are afraid that you cannot quit. The very thought of not smoking is very painful. Here is the mental route you must follow if you are going to do what you really want to do.

First, consider that the human brain acts as a computer. If you feed facts into it, it will assemble them, digest them, and give you a true answer. If you include false information in your programming you will get a false answer. So, the first step is to be honest with yourself. This may be the most difficult part of the whole process, but it is the most important. If you cannot be honest with yourself, forget the whole thing; do not bother to read any more of this article.

If you are going to be honest, you have to discard the old rationalizations that you have been feeding to your brain and begin programming the facts so that your brain can give you true answers.

* * *

Now, let's list all the pertinent facts about smoking as they affect you and put them in either the plus or minus column.

On the plus side:

Smoking relieves an uncomfortable feeling caused by a lack of nicotine and other poisons in your system.

Smoking relaxes your nerves.

Smoking tastes good after a meal.

It's fun to blow smoke rings.

Now stop and list all the other benefits you can think of. Be sure that they are truly benefits and not rationalizations.

Now for the negative side:

The overwhelming bulk of medical evidence indicates that smoking is bad for your health. This ought to be sufficient reason for you to quit, but it is not emotional enough.

You probably have "smoker's hack."

There are times when your mouth tastes terrible.

Maybe you don't know this but you have "smoker's breath."

Your teeth are discolored.

Your tongue is an unnatural fishbelly white instead of a healthy pink.

* * *

Smoking is dirty—ashes, old butts, dirty ashtrays, discolored curtains, and the all pervading stink of stale tobacco smoke.

Smoking is a fire hazard—if only to the extent of burned table cloths, pants, coats, automobile seats, and furniture tops.

Smoking reduces your pleasure in tasting and savoring your food.

You cannot enjoy the theater or church or concerts because you cannot smoke in many public buildings.

There is the bother of keeping up with your paraphernalia, cigarettes, lighters, flints, fluid, etc.

There is the feeling of panic when you realize that you are out of cigarettes and it is the middle of the night.

* * *

Smoking is expensive. Two packs a day works out to $219 a year. This will buy a pretty fair insurance policy.

This list is just a starter. With a little honest thought you can come up with lots of other facts that discourage the smoking habit.

Having considered this listing of the pros and cons, only a very rare person will decide to quit immediately. If you do decide to quit right now, you probably will not make it. You still have a lot of thinking to do. Your computer has to take these facts and come up with an answer so true and incontrovertible that you cannot fail to recognize it for what it is.

Now, you really do want to quit or you would not have bothered to read this far. You have known all this for years but refused to admit it for fear that you couldn't quit, and naturally you refused to admit that excessive smoking is stupid. So let your computer operate with the facts and sometime in the near future you will honestly decide to quit not just try to quit but really quit. When this happens, you have had your last cigarette. That half smoked butt you threw away really was your last forever.

* * *

Now comes phase two the hard part the part you must learn to enjoy. This is where you have to use the positive action of your mind to win over the negative physiological reaction caused by a sudden lack of poison in your system.

First, there is the chain habit pattern of reaching for the pack thumbing one out sticking it between your lips lighting a match taking that first satisfying drag and blowing out a cloud of smoke. If you will notice, you probably go through almost the same set of motions and sequences everytime you light up. This chain habit is usually triggered by seeing someone else light up, by sheer unconscious habit, or by a vague desire to change the taste in your mouth. Notice that most cigarette advertising stresses taste. If your mouth tastes anything like mine used to, a change is needed.

During the early throes of withdrawal, most people try to combat this taste problem by chewing gum, eating lifesavers and similar substitutes. I found that anything sweet triggered the desire and made it almost intolerable. However, there are many things which will do the trick. The simplest and one of the most effective is just to suck on a piece of ice. If ice isn't available, get some cold drinking water. Brushing your teeth or using mouthwash will get you over the hump once in a while. No one thing will do the entire job, but try these suggestions and experiment to find out what will work for you.

* * *

There isn't much you can do about the physiological aspect except to alleviate the immediate craving. Remember that the first time you smoked it was distasteful and probably made you sick. You likely did it because the big boys did, and you wanted to be part of the crowd. So, back to nature. Be a big boy and resist. Be an individualist.

Begin to be an obnoxious non-smoker and you can begin to enjoy it. Make such a big deal out of not smoking that you will be ashamed to back down. Call up your friends and tell them about your amazing strength of will and ability to resist temptation. Point out that you have not smoked for 18 hours and 22½ minutes. Yell, brag, beat your chest. Go so far out on the limb that you cannot crawl back. What are you a free ego able to control your own conduct or a puppet on the string of addiction?

After you have gone through all this hullabaloo for about three days, you will feel real pleased with yourself but wonder if you still have the raw guts to stick it out. Then comes the bonus. All of a sudden you feel better, and you realize that you have not really felt healthy and well for years. You notice the inimitable taste and texture of fresh air when you meet it. You can ask your friends with a superior smile, "How long has it been since you really smelled an orange or tasted a cantaloupe?"

When you feel an almost irresistible urge to give in, go to the nearest florist shop. Too, remember you are saving about 70 cents a day—make a point of going to the nearest charity and making a donation. After a week or 10 days you will notice a most remarkable change change in your mental attitude. All of a sudden you are complete master of yourself for the first time in years. You will notice that your constant cough, throat clearing, and phlegm is on the wane. You will have energy to accomplish things that you have been putting off and you will enjoy doing them. You will enjoy your new feeling of accomplishment and satisfaction.

Suddenly you will realize that the smartest thing you have done in years was to quit smoking. There is the positive pleasure of the sure knowledge that you are master of your own nerves and physical well being.

Now the worst is over. You will never have to go through the agony of not smoking again. Just a little longer and you will have it made and you can list yourself amongst the smart ones.

Go back and reread the first part of the article. Start thinking and begin now to stop smoking.

Oswald: "There is no scientific way to bid a freak hand. You let your conscience be your guide and hope for the best."

Jim: "I would be inclined to jump right to five clubs with the South hand. Maybe I would make it. Maybe I would get my opponents up to five spades, which I would double."

Oswald: "I think I would bid just the way this South did. I hope to be doubled at four clubs. This time South did very well with his bids."

Jim: "Yes, indeed! He ruffed the opening spade lead and looked over dummy without any particular zest. He didn't expect to be hurt at five clubs but his chances of making the contract weren't good."

Oswald: "He was going to get to dummy once and clearly the best he could do with that one lead would be to play a heart and finesse his queen. Therefore, it was up to him to get away with the loss of just two trump tricks."

Jim: "After coming to this decision, South played his king of clubs. When West followed with the queen, South was down to only two trump losers. All that remained was the heart finesse and that worked."

Oswald: "If any of our readers think that the success of South's play was pure luck, we want to disillusion them. He gave himself the best chance."

Jim: "If clubs divided 2-2, it didn't matter a bit which club he led. He would lose exactly two tricks in the suit. If they broke 4-0, it still didn't matter. He would lose three club tricks. If they broke 3-1, the king play gave him a chance to pickle either the queen or the jack; a low play would give him a chance to pickle only the ace. Two chances are twice as good as one."

WORD'S SOURCE

The word assassin comes from hashishin, which means a "taker of hashish" when it was applied to a terrorist sect of 11th-century Persian Muslims. Its followers took hashish—a drug made from hemp—before murdering their enemies.

Ann Landers

Husband, Ex-Wife Talking Too Much

Dear Ann: Thank you for the wisdom shown in your reply to the mother whose handsome, brilliant son announced he was going to marry a blind girl. As founder and editor of Dialogue, a recorded and brailled magazine for the blind, and as a blind person myself, my prime aim in life is to help erase as many misconceptions about sightless people as possible.

I married a blind girl nearly four years ago. I wish that worried mother could meet my wife. She has a master's degree and is a speech therapist, the only blind person — teacher or student — at Morton High School in Cicero, Ill. My wife is a fine cook and an excellent housekeeper. Her hobby is writing children's books. She gives lectures and enjoys performing with an amateur theatrical group.

I hope the concerned mother will accept her blind daughter-in-law as a normal human being and forget about her sightlessness. Above all, she must not pity her or make excuses for her. Before long she will discover that all her fears were without foundation. — D.O.N.

Dear D.O.N.: Thank you for a most inspiring letter. It was one of many — but alas, I cannot print them all. My best wishes to you and your bride.

* * *

Dear Ann Landers: I just caught up with some back columns. A friend saves them for me when I travel. The letter signed "Sick of Sex and Hungry for Love" was a lulu. The woman complained because her husband wasn't romantic. She said his lovemaking was zero, that she slept with him in exchange for financial security. Her closing words were, "I know how a prostitute feels."

Since she knows how a prostitute feel, why doesn't she go back to work? I'm well acquainted with her kind. They hate sex, put nothing into it, then blame their husbands because they aren't romantic. These dollies are dead from the neck both ways and they believe a marriage license entitles them to permanent amnesty.

You'd lose your job if you printed this letter so I don't expect to see it in the paper, but I feel better for having written it. — HEY YOU (MY EX-WIFE'S NAME FOR ME)

Dear Hey: Here's your letter, and so far as I know I'm still employed. Thanks for writing.

* * *

Dear Ann Landers: How much of his time does a man owe his former wife? In the last two years my husband has spent hundreds of hours on the phone listening to sad stories about the children's report cards and their inability to get along with other children. She asked him to help her move (he did) and he also helped her with income tax forms. Every few days he gets a call. Last night she needed some addresses of mutual friends.

Every time the phone rings my blood pressure goes up 20 points. I'll repeat the question: How much of his time does a man owe his former wife? — NO. 3

Dear NO. 3: The question can best be answered by the ex-husband. He owes her as much time as he feels he wants to give. And if you are wise you'll be patient, supportive, understanding, and silent.

★ ★ ★

The person who says, "I smoke because I want to," may think he is being honest with himself but what he really means is that he cannot imagine not smoking.

I am willing to admit that tobacco affects different people in different ways. Some people seem to be able to quit for a month or a year without any trouble at all, and then they start again. These people never had the habit the way I did or the way you have it.

This is written for those of you who can't survive without a cigarette in your mouth every 30 minutes or so. That is only a pack and a half a day and I was going at the rate of two to three packs a day. I managed to quit; so can you. At least you hope you can or you would not have read this far.

Because smoking is as much a mental thing as it is physiological, the first thing you have to do is think in the right direction. Once you have examined the facts in a logical, dispassionate manner and ignored all the weak excuses that are based on your fear that you cannot quit, you will reach the inexorable conclusion that you are stupid if you continue to smoke. It takes more will power to admit to yourself that you are stupid than it does to quit smoking.

Up to now you have refused to admit that you really want to quit because you are afraid that you cannot quit. The very thought of not smoking is very painful. Here is the mental route you must follow if you are going to do what you really want to do.

First, consider that the human brain acts as a computer. If you feed facts into it, it will assemble them, digest them, and give you a true answer. If you include false information in your programming you will get a false answer. So, the first step is to be honest with yourself. This may be the most difficult part of the whole process, but it is the most important. If you cannot be honest with yourself, forget the whole thing; do not bother to read any more of this article.

If you are going to be honest, you have to discard the old rationalizations that you have been feeding to your brain and begin programming the facts so that your brain can give you true answers.

★ ★ ★

Now, let's list all the pertinent facts about smoking as they affect you and put them in either the plus or minus column.

On the plus side:

Smoking relieves an uncomfortable feeling caused by a lack of nicotine and other poisons in your system.

Smoking relaxes your nerves.

Smoking tastes good after a meal.

It's fun to blow smoke rings.

Now stop and list all the other benefits you can think of. Be sure that they are truly benefits and not rationalizations.

Now for the negative side:

The overwhelming bulk of medical evidence indicates that smoking is bad for your health. This ought to be sufficient reason for you to quit, but it is not emotional enough.

You probably have "smoker's hack."

There are times when your mouth tastes terrible.

Maybe you don't know this . . but you have "smoker's breath."

Your teeth are discolored.

Your tongue is an unnatural fishbelly white instead of a healthy pink.

★ ★ ★

Smoking is dirty—ashes, old butts, dirty ashtrays, discolored curtains, and the all pervading stink of stale tobacco smoke.

Smoking is a fire hazard—if only to the extent of burned table cloths, pants, coats, automobile seats, and furniture tops.

Smoking reduces your pleasure in tasting and savoring your food.

You cannot enjoy the theater or church or concerts because you cannot smoke in many public buildings.

There is the bother of keeping up with your paraphernalia, cigarettes, lighters, flints, fluid, etc.

There is the feeling of panic when you realize that you are out of cigarettes and it is the middle of the night.

★ ★ ★

Smoking is expensive. Two packs a day works out to $219 a year. This will buy a pretty fair insurance policy.

This list is just a starter. With a little honest thought you can come up with lots of other facts that discourage the smoking habit.

Having considered this listing of the pros and cons, only a very rare person will decide to quit immediately. If you do decide to quit right now, you probably will not make it. You still have a lot of thinking to do. Your computer has to take these facts and come up with an answer so true and incontrovertible that you cannot fail to recognize it for what it is.

Now, you really do want to quit or you would not have bothered to read this far. You have known all this for years but refused to admit it for fear that you couldn't quit, and naturally you refused to admit that excessive smoking is stupid. So let your computer operate with the facts and sometime in the near future you will honestly decide to quit . . not just try to quit but really quit. When this happens, you have had your last cigarette. That half smoked butt you threw away really was your last . . forever.

Now comes phase two . . the hard part . . the part you must learn to enjoy. This is where you have to use the positive action of your mind to win over the negative physiological reaction caused by a sudden lack of poison in your system.

First, there is the chain habit pattern of reaching for the pack . . thumbing one out . . sticking it between your lips . . lighting a match . . taking that first satisfying drag . . and blowing out a cloud of smoke. If you will notice, you probably go through almost the same set of motions and sequences everytime you light up. This chain habit is usually triggered by seeing someone else light up, by sheer unconscious habit, or by a vague desire to change the taste in your mouth. Notice that most cigarette advertising stresses taste. If your mouth tastes anything like mine used to, a change is needed.

During the early throes of withdrawal, most people try to combat this taste problem by chewing gum, eating lifesavers and similar substitutes. I found that anything sweet triggered the desire and made it almost intolerable. However, there are many things which will do the trick. The simplest and one of the most effective is just to suck on a piece of ice. If ice isn't available, get some cold drinking water. Brushing your teeth or using mouthwash will get you over the hump once in a while. No one thing will do the entire job, but try these suggestions and experiment to find out what will work for you.

There isn't much you can do about the physiological aspect except to alleviate the immediate craving. Remember that the first time you smoked it was distasteful and probably made you sick. You likely did it because the big boys did, and you wanted to be part of the crowd. So, back to nature. Be a big boy and resist. Be an individualist.

Begin to be an obnoxious non-smoker and you can begin to enjoy it. Make such a big deal out of not smoking that you will be ashamed to back down. Call up your friends and tell them about your amazing strength of will and ability to resist temptation. Point out that you have not smoked for 18 hours and 22½ minutes. Yell, brag, beat your chest. Go so far out on the limb that you cannot crawl back. What are you . . a free ego able to control your own conduct or a puppet on the string of addiction?

After you have gone through all this hullabaloo for about three days, you will feel real pleased with yourself but wonder if you still have the raw guts to stick it out. Then comes the bonus. All of a sudden you feel better, and you realize that you have not really felt healthy and well for years. You notice the inimitable taste and texture of fresh air when you meet it. You can ask your friends with a superior smile, "How long has it been since you really smelled an orange or tasted a cantaloupe?"

When you feel an almost irresistible urge to give in, go to the nearest florist shop. Too, remember you are saving about 70 cents a day—make a point of going to the nearest charity and making a donation. After a week or 10 days you will notice a most remarkable change change in your mental attitude. All of a sudden you are complete master of yourself for the first time in years. You will notice that your constant cough, throat clearing, and phlegm is on the wane. You will have energy to accomplish things that you have been puutting off and you will enjoy doing them. You will enjoy your new feeling of accomplishment and satisfaction.

Suddenly you will realize that the smartest thing you have done in years was to quit smoking. There is the positive pleasure of the sure knowledge that you are master of your own nerves and physical well being.

Now the worst is over. You will never have to go through the agony of not smoking again. Just a little longer and you will have it made . . and you can list yourself amongst the smart ones.

Go back and reread the first part of the article. Start thinking . . and begin now to stop smoking.

Oswald: "There is no scientific way to bid a freak hand. You let your conscience be your guide and hope for the best."

Jim: "I would be inclined to jump right to five clubs with the South hand. Maybe I would make it. Maybe I would get my opponents up to five spades, which I would double."

Oswald: "I think I would bid just the way this South did. I hope to be doubled at four clubs. This time South did very well with his bids."

Jim: "Yes, indeed! He ruffed the opening spade lead and looked over dummy without any particular zest. He didn't expect to be hurt at five clubs but his chances of making the contract weren't good."

Oswald: "He was going to get to dummy once and clearly the best he could do with that one lead would be to play a heart and finesse his queen. Therefore, it was up to him to get away with the loss of just two trump tricks."

Jim: "After coming to this decision, South played his king of clubs. When West followed with the queen, South was down to only two trump losers. All that remained was the heart finesse and that worked."

Oswald: "If any of our readers think that the success of South's play was pure luck, we want to disillusion them. He gave himself the best chance."

Jim: "If clubs divided 2-2, it didn't matter a bit which club he led. He would lose exactly two tricks in the suit. If they broke 4-0, it still didn't matter. He would lose three club tricks. If they broke 3-1, the king play gave him a chance to pickle either the queen or the jack; a low play would give him a chance to pickle only the ace. Two chances are twice as good as one."

The word assassin comes from hashishin, which means a "taker of hashish" when it was applied to a terrorist sect of 11th-century Persian Muslims. Its followers took hashish—a drug made from hemp—before murdering their enemies.

Ann Landers

Husband, Ex-Wife Talking Too Much

Dear Ann: Thank you for the wisdom shown in your reply to the mother whose handsome, brilliant son announced he was going to marry a blind girl. As founder and editor of Dialogue, a recorded and brailled magazine for the blind, and as a blind person myself, my prime aim in life is to help erase as many misconceptions about sightless people as possible.

I married a blind girl nearly four years ago. I wish that worried mother could meet my wife. She has a master's degree and is a speech therapist, the only blind person — teacher or student — at Morton High School in Cicero, Ill. My wife is a fine cook and an excellent housekeeper. Her hobby is writing children's books. She gives lectures and enjoys performing with an amateur theatrical group.

I hope the concerned mother will accept her blind daughter-in-law as a normal human being and forget about her sightlessness. Above all, she must not pity her or make excuses for her. Before long she will discover that all her fears were without foundation. — D.O.N.

Dear D.O.N.: Thank you for a most inspiring letter. It was one of many — but alas, I cannot print them all. My best wishes to you and your bride.

★ ★ ★

Dear Ann Landers: I just caught up with some back columns. A friend saves them for me when I travel. The letter signed "Sick of Sex and Hungry for Love" was a lulu. The woman complained because her husband wasn't romantic. She said his lovemaking was zero, that she slept with him in exchange for financial security. Her closing words were, "I know how a prostitute feels."

Since she knows how a prostitute feel, why doesn't she go back to work? I'm well acquainted with her kind. They hate sex, put nothing into it, then blame their husbands because they aren't romantic. These dollies are dead from the neck both ways and they believe a marriage license entitles them to permanent amnesty.

You'd lose your job if you printed this letter so I don't expect to see it in the paper, but I feel better for having written it. — HEY YOU (MY EX-WIFE'S NAME FOR ME)

Dear Hey: Here's your letter, and so far as I know I'm still employed. Thanks for writing.

★ ★ ★

Dear Ann Landers: How much of his time does a man owe his former wife? in the last two years my husband has spent hundreds of hours on the phone listening to sad stories about the children's report cards and their inability to get along with other children. She asked him to help her move (he did) and he also helped her with income tax forms. Every few days he gets a call. Last night she needed some addresses of mutual friends.

Every time the phone rings my blood pressure goes up 20 points. I'll repeat the question: How much of his time does a man owe his former wife? — NO. 3

Dear NO. 3: The question can best be answered by the ex-husband. He owes her as much time as he feels he wants to give. And if you are wise you'll be patient, supportive, understanding, and silent.

Cite Young Couple For Man-Slaughter In Infant's Death

DETROIT (AP) — A teen-aged Dearborn couple faces a man-slaughter charge after a deputy medical examiner testified the couple's infant son died from "marked malnutrition."

Ronald Dayton, 19, and his 17-year-old wife were bound over to Wayne County Circuit Court Friday by Dearborn Municipal Judge Ralph B. Guy Sr. They were released on $100 bond each.

Police said they found the body of Ronald Dayton Jr., 3½ months old, on Jan. 26 when Mrs. Dayton called them to the apartment.

A deputy medical examiner testified that the baby weighed just seven pounds.

Dayton said an auto accident six weeks ago had put him out of work.

Another son, Russell, 17 months, is being cared for by relatives after twice being hospitalized with pneumonia, police said.

Milliken Takes Action To Stem Disagreement

LANSING (AP) — Gov. William Milliken apparently is taking stern action to insure that his appointees reflect executive office positions in public statements.

The action came after State Highway Director Henrik Stafseth criticized the Governor's plan to spend $1.6 million to establish a state police task force.

In addition, Milliken reportedly is fearful of criticism from the state Natural Resources Commission on his proposal to spend more than half of the $100 million recreation bond issue in urban areas.

According to a high executive office source, Milliken is "frankly not pleased with the direction developed" in the state police task force issue.

Milliken has been accused by some of "raiding" funds earmarked specifically for highway construction.

Milliken objected to the term "raid," the source said, adding that Milliken feels there is ample precedent to justify use of the funds.

The same monies, the official said, have been used to build rest areas, roadside parks and rest rooms.

The Governor also held a meeting with the Natural Resources Commission, apparently to cut short any proposals to object publicly to Milliken's plea for spending more than half of the $100 million in urban areas.

At least one commission member has privately stated that the voters approved the issue on the basis of $70 million for state projects such as campsites and fish hatcheries and $30 million for urban areas.

If Milliken's proposal is approved by the legislature, the commission members said, "we wouldn't be able to pass another recreation bond issue for 50 years."

Milliken tried to convince Commission members to come over to the 40-30-30 side during his recent meeting, a sourc said.

However, a high scource said, Milliken "did not ask for a committment at this point."

Nonetheless, Milliken apparently made it clear that he wasn't about to revert to the 70-30 recreation bond distribution.

What apparently disturbs Milliken is the fear that his administration will appear divided and that he cannot control appointees who serve at the pleasure of the governor.

One source said Milliken feels that "government should operate with some degree of agreement" and that is the reason for the meetings.

Funds To Classify Drivers Licenses

LANSING (AP) — Gov. William Milliken has announced approval of a $46,250 federal grant to implement a classified drivers license program in Michigan.

The funds, awarded to the department of state by the U. S. Transportation Department's National Highway Safety Bureau, are to be matched with state money.

The classified license program provides that each driver hold only one license which identified the types of vehicles he is authorized to drive.

The project is expected to contribute to traffic safety by assuring that the drivers of different classes of vehicles prove their capability for operating these vehicles before they are licensed to do so.

Felton 'Heard Crackling, Smelled Smoke' In Office

By DAVE ANDREWS

It was a peaceful Sunday in Escanaba. The temperature was climbing toward the mid-30s in the late morning. Much of the city was in church or home preparing Sunday dinner.

Oliver H. Felton, owner of Felton Radio & TV Supply Co., was at work taking inventory in his large retail-wholesale building on Ludington St., working back and forth between the front display area and the stockroom.

"I heard crackling and smelled smoke," he said. "I ran to the front and the southside wall of the office was on fire."

As soon as he saw the fire, Felton said he ran to a telephone in the back room of his building and notified the fire department, but the heat generated by the rapidly-spreading flames quickly blew out the front of the building. Flames shot across the sidewalk nearly to the parking meters.

When firemen arrived moments later heavy, black smoke already was billowing from the building, shrouding buildings on the north side of the street.

For a while it appeared that firemen would be able to confine the blaze to the radio and television store, but flames broke through the roof on the west part of the building, climbed the wall of the Goodman Division building owned by F. W. Schmitt of Escanaba and appeared to break through a window and into roofing and insulation.

Residents of second floor apartments who were home already had been alerted to leave the buildings by Escanaba police and employes of Goodman division worked through the back door to save what office equipment they could.

As the fire increased, business firms west of the main fire began moving out equipment and records. They were assisted by many local residents who were a part of the large crowd which gathered to watch the blaze and firefighting efforts.

Both Escanaba radio stations —WDBC and WLST—broadcast live reports from the scene and American Cablevision did a live picture report from their offices.

Today, the cleanup job began with City of Escanaba crews working to remove bricks from the front of Felton's, which collapsed, and from the upper apartment wall over Richards' Printing which exploded outward as the fire spread.

Felton, who has owned the building since 1961, said his plans are indefinite. Executives of Goodman Division were meeting this morning to determine their course of action. Ray Richards, owner of the print shop, said he would have to look for another building.

Felton said his loss, which he estimated at perhaps $150,000 in building and inventory, including expensive color television sets and stereo units, was partially covered by insurance.

Photo coverage in today's Daily Press of Sunday's fire was provided by Bernard Schultz, Daily Press photographer, and Dave Andrews, Daily Press city editor, and Don Pavlowski of Gladstone.

PART OF THE LARGE CROWD of residents who gathered Sunday to watch the spectacular fire on Ludington St. which broke out about 11:30 a.m. Sunday watched firefighting efforts from S. 6th St. Later, police roped off the entire block to allow firemen to work unhampered by spectators and also to prevent injury. Below, only the shells of the buildings remain standing this morning. Firemen were still pouring water on the smoldering ruins until about 8 a.m. Felton Radio & TV Supply Co. is on the corner, flanked on the west by the general offices of Goodman Division and Richards' printing.

the height of the fire are Edward D. Jones & Co., stock broker, the Masonic Temple, Western Union, and at the west end of the the block the First National Bank & Trust Co. building, above with nine offices on the upper floors.

The first alarm brought to the scene eight of the city's firemen then on duty, followed by the call-up of the remainder of fire fighters to a total of 25 men, said Chief Derouin.

Additional men an equipment came to Escanaba from Powers-Spalding, Bark River, Gladstone and K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base to help fight the blaze, while at the request of City Manager George Harvey fire departments at Menominee and Munising were alerted and asked to stand by in event they were needed.

Salvage Begins

More than one million gallons of water were poured onto the flames over a period of several hours, reported Francis D'Amour, city water department superintendent.

The buildings in the block were of masonry, frame and brick. Most of them were built a half-century or more ago.

Personnel of the Goodman Division of Calumet & Hecla today with the cooperation of firemen were digging into the debris in efforts to recover papers and records from their files

The whole area is roped off to prevent injury to the public while salvage in under way. Razing of walls that are dangerously insecure will follow.

Front Blew Out

The suddenness of the blaze in the Felton building and the explosive effect of the heat was indicated by an inicident involving Escanaba Patrolman Robert Coan.

Driving east on Ludington St., Coan reported that he was in front of the Goodman Division building when the front of the Felton building "blew out" and scattered debris into the street.

Police were all called back into emergency duty during the crisis and assisted in fire control operations and in directing traffic.

There was some looting and petty larceny during the excitement of the fire. In one office, a desk drawer was pried open and some money is missing, reported Police Capt. Richard Lundin.

FIREMEN POUR WATER on the second floor of the Goodman Division office building Sunday from a city electric department hydraulic lift truck in an effort to prevent flames from spreading. Another lift truck was used at the rear of the buildings. Below, a fireman directs a heavy stream of water at the fire from the nozzle mounted on top of the Escanaba Fire Department's big ladder truck. Eight pumper trucks also were thrown into service.

FANNED BY SOUTHERLY WINDS, smoke from Felton Radio & TV Supply Co. and Goodman Division offices blows across Ludington St. as firemen attempted to control the blaze Sunday afternoon. Below, firemen pour water through windows on the east side of the radio and television supply company shortly after the fire broke out.

Special Limited Enrollment Period Ends Midnight, March 22, 1969

Now...for people of all ages—$100.00 a week extra cash income when you go to the hospital!

SEND NO MONEY NOW!

Examine the policy without obligation.
Pay only if you decide to join.

AT LAST, HERE IS A PLAN THAT ACTUALLY PAYS YOU:
- extra cash up to $10,000
- extra cash direct to you
- extra cash from your first day in hospital
- extra cash up to 100 weeks
- extra cash to use any way you want to
- extra cash in addition to Medicare or any other insurance!

NO AGE LIMIT • JOIN NOW • THIS INTRODUCTORY OFFER LASTS ONLY 5 MORE DAYS!

NOW...you and your family can join this Extra Cash Income Plan with no red tape, no questions to answer, no medical examination, no age limit, without having to see a salesman and without any qualifications whatsoever. But you must mail your Enrollment no later than Midnight, Date.

Why You Need This EXTRA CASH Plan In Addition To Ordinary Hospitalization And Medicare

You know, of course, that the tremendous jump in hospital costs has forced millions who already have hospitalization to dig into savings or go into debt. Even with Medicare, they risk using up their savings or, worse yet, turning to family and friends for help. In fact, very few people have enough savings, hospitalization or income to cover the TOTAL cost of being sick or injured.

How long could you stay in the hospital without worrying about the pile-up of daily expenses? Who will pay for the expenses of costly X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? And how about the expenses at home—rent, food, telephone and others that just go on and on? With expenses like these, could you avoid having your savings wiped out and your family life upset?

Better Safe Than Sorry

Wouldn't it be comforting to know these problems could be solved by your Extra Cash Income Plan—the plan that gives you $100.00 a week—IN CASH—tax-free—from the very first day you're in the hospital for up to 100 full weeks.

PAYS YOU CASH...$100.00 a week tax-free cash from first day in hospital!

PAYS YOU CASH...to a maximum of $10,000.00 for any hospital stay lasting 100 weeks!

PAYS YOU CASH...Money mailed direct to you—not to the doctor or hospital!

PAYS YOU CASH...In addition to hospitalization, Medicare and Workmen's Compensation!

Even If You Are Over 65 This Extra Income Plan Pays You Cash in Addition to Medicare and Other Insurance!

Even though Medicare will pay most of your hospital expenses, it just can't cover everything. Your Extra Income Plan helps solve this problem by paying $100.00 a week, in cash, direct to you, for as long as 100 weeks... and gives you the privilege of spending this money any way you want to. With your total benefit amounting to $10,000.00 you'll never have to turn to your children or charity. You'll keep your financial independence and enjoy the peace of mind that this Plan's EXTRA CASH will give you.

Absolutely NO LIMIT On Age

This Plan welcomes you no matter what your age is—and without any qualifications whatsoever! Even if you're over 75 you're still eligible . . . provided, of course, that you fill in and mail the Enrollment Form during this limited enrollment period.

EXTRA CASH Gives Peace Of Mind and Security, Helps Replace Lost Income

Everything costs more these days. (Who knows better than you?) Hospital costs alone have TRIPLED in just a few short years . . . and they're expected to DOUBLE soon. While 7 out of 8 Americans have some hospital insurance, most find that benefits simply don't cover ALL the bills that mount up when sickness or accident strikes.

Union Fidelity created this low-cost Hospital Income Plan to help cover your UNCOVERED expenses while hospitalized . . . to put EXTRA CASH in your hand for bills from the doctor, the surgeon, the nurse, the druggist or anyone else who provides service and treatment you need and want. You may even have enough left over to help REPLACE any income you lose because of your confinement.

And remember: Your EXTRA CASH is paid direct to you . . . and you use it any way you want to.

These Are The Only Exclusions!

The new Union Fidelity "Extra Income Hospital Plan" has NO WAITING PERIODS. It covers you immediately for every possible kind of sickness and accident except, of course, hospitalization caused by mental disorders; act of war; pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage; or care provided in a government hospital. It even covers you for any chronic ailment or pre-existing condition after your policy has been in force for only 2 years. EVERYTHING ELSE IS COVERED!

Send No Money—Special Offer Expires Midnight of Date Shown on Coupon Below!

To introduce you to this remarkable new Plan we are making this unusual offer with a Money-Back Guarantee. To take advantage of this tax-free "Extra Income Hospital Plan"—Form 478—fill in the Enrollment Form on this page and mail it before Midnight of the expiration date shown.

When you receive your policy, examine in the privacy of your home. Show it to your lawyer, your doctor, your clergyman or any advisor. Then decide for yourself . . . and while you're making up your mind, you can be protected by this wonderful Plan by sending in only one month's premium at the low rates shown below. If the Extra Cash Income Plan isn't everything we say it is, return the policy within 30 days and your money will be cheerfully refunded with no questions asked. However, if you decide to continue this worthwhile protection, you may do so at these low rates:

Union Fidelity Monthly Rates

Age at Enrollment	Monthly Premium
0-39	only $3.80
40-54	only $4.80
55-64	only $5.80
65-74	only $6.80
75 and over	only $9.10

NOTE: The regular Monthly Premium shown here (for your age at time of enrollment) is the exact amount you will continue to pay for the life of your policy. It will never increase because you pass from one age bracket to the next! It won't even change because of frequent claims or the amount of money you collect. It can change only if there is a general rate adjustment affecting all policies of this type in your state.

How Can We Offer All This Protection for So Little?

If you're lucky, you can buy ordinary insurance at any time and pay regular rates. But NOW—with just a stroke of your pen—you can get Union Fidelity's $100 a week ($14.28 per day) Extra Cash Income Plan for the special low cost shown above. And how is this possible? BECAUSE UNION FIDELITY ENROLLS A LARGE NUMBER OF PEOPLE AT ONE TIME . . . direct by mail. This highly efficient "mass enrollment" cuts our costs to the bone. We are able to issue thousands of policies in a few short days. By this method our overhead expenses are reduced drastically. And the savings are passed on to you!

And bear this in mind: the rate you pay now will never be increased because of changes in your health or age—nor will your benefits ever be reduced!

A Nationally Respected Company

As important as the cash income itself, the low cost and ease of enrollment, is this one vital fact: Your policy is backed by the resources, integrity and national reputation of Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia, an old line legal reserve company licensed in 49 states and Washington, D.C.

Easy To Join—No Red Tape—No Salesman Will Call

Join NOW. During this limited enrollment period there are no qualifications whatsoever . . . but you must mail the Enrollment Form BEFORE the Midnight deadline. We will issue your "Extra Income Hospital Plan," mail it to you to examine in your home and put it in force on the very same day we receive your premium payment.

Why not take a moment right now to fill in your Enrollment Form and mail it today.

SEND NO MONEY No Risk Money-Back Guarantee!

Because we're so confident this Extra Income Plan that PAYS CASH direct to you is the best low-cost protection now available, we make our famous Money-Back Guarantee. When you get your policy look it over. Pay only after you have examined the policy! You must be 100% satisfied that your Plan is exactly what we promise and exactly what you want. If you're not, send the policy back to us within 30 days and we will REFUND YOUR MONEY IN FULL . . . AT ONCE. But meanwhile you will be protected. And if you decide to continue this wonderful protection, you do so at the low rate that will never be raised because you grow older!

SEND NO MONEY
Until After You
Have Examined Your Policy

JOIN NOW—"TOMORROW" MAY BE TOO LATE!* This is a limited enrollment. YOU MUST ACT NOW! The expiration date shown below can't be extended. If your Enrollment is mailed later, it can't be accepted. TIME IS PRECIOUS! Get your Enrollment Form in the mail . . . *today!

18 Important Questions Answered

That tell you how Union Fidelity's $100.00-A-Week Extra Cash Income Plan gives you the protection you need—at amazingly low cost!

1. How much will this policy pay me when I go to the hospital?
   You will receive $100.00 per week.
2. When will my hospitalization benefits start?
   The day you enter the hospital.
3. Will I be paid if I am in the hospital for less than a full week?
   Yes. This new Plan pays if you are in the hospital for only a day, or a week, a month, a year.
4. Does this policy have any "waiting periods" before I can use it?
   No. It will go in force on the very same day that we receive your payment for the first month's coverage.
5. How long will I continue to receive my Extra Cash?
   For every day you are hospitalized for as long as 100 weeks for every covered accident or sickness.
6. Is there any red tape to join?
   No. We only ask you to complete and mail your Enrollment Form before the deadline date shown. No questions to answer. No salesman will call.
7. Suppose I collect benefits for a certain sickness or accident. What happens if I am hospitalized again for the same condition?
   You go back to collecting your $100.00 a week until you've been hospitalized for a total of 100 weeks and have collected $10,000.00. Then, if the same condition puts you back in the hospital after you've resumed your normal activities for six months, you become eligible to receive $100.00 a week again, for up to 100 additional weeks. Any new condition will be covered immediately, of course.
8. How may I use these benefit payments?
   You may use them any way you wish—for hospital and doctor bills, rent, food, household expenses or anything else. You alone decide how to use the money.
9. Why do I need your Extra Cash Plan in addition to my other insurance?
   Chances are your present hospital insurance won't cover all your hospital and medical expenses. Even if it did, you will still need extra cash to cover all your household expenses.
10. May I join if I am over 65?
    Yes. You are welcome to join no matter what your age is. This Plan has no age limit.
11. Can you drop me? Can you raise my rates?
    No. We will never cancel or refuse to renew your policy for health reasons so long as you make your premium payments on time. Also, we guarantee that we will never cancel your protection or adjust your rate unless we take the same action with regard to all policies of this type in your state. You, of course, can drop your policy on any renewal date.
12. What is not covered by this policy?
    The only conditions not covered are hospitalization caused by mental disorders; act of war; pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage; or care provided in a government hospital. You are even covered for any chronic ailment or pre-existing condition after your policy has been in force for only two years. Everything else is covered.
13. Can other members of my family take advantage of this special offer?
    Yes. Just add their names to the Enrollment Form when you fill it in.
14. Why is this offer good for a limited time only?
    Because by enrolling a large number of people at the same time our underwriting, processing and policy issue costs can be kept at a minimum. These savings, of course, are passed on to you.
15. Do I need a medical examination or a statement from my doctor?
    Definitely not. Send no money. Just fill in the Enrollment Form and mail today.
16. What other advantages are there of joining this Plan now?
    By joining now you do not need to complete a regular application—just the brief form in the lower right-hand corner of this page. Also, during this enrollment period, there are no other qualifications—no "waivers" or restrictive endorsements can be put on your policy.
17. How does the Money-Back Guarantee work?
    Examine your policy carefully in the privacy of your home. If for any reason you are not completely satisfied, return it within 30 days and we will promptly refund your money. Meanwhile, you will be protected while making your decision.
18. How do I join?
    Fill in the brief Enrollment Form (be sure to sign your name) and send no money. Mail it to Union Fidelity Life. 104 South Main Street, Fond du Lac, Wisconsin 54935

In fact, very few people have enough savings, hospitalization or income to cover the TOTAL cost of being sick or injured.

How long could you stay in the hospital without worrying about the pile-up of daily expenses? Who will pay for the expenses of costly X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? And how about the expenses at home—rent, food, telephone and others that just go on and on? With expenses like these, could you avoid having your savings wiped out and your family life upset?

Better Safe Than Sorry

Wouldn't it be comforting to know these problems could be solved by your Extra Cash Income Plan—the plan that gives you $100.00 a week—IN CASH—tax-free—from the very first day you're in the hospital for up to 100 full weeks.

PAYS YOU CASH . . . $100.00 a week tax-free cash from first day in hospital!

PAYS YOU CASH . . . to a maximum of $10,000.00 for any hospital stay lasting 100 weeks!

PAYS YOU CASH . . . Money mailed direct to you—not to the doctor or hospital!

PAYS YOU CASH . . . In addition to hospitalization, Medicare and Workmen's Compensation!

Even If You Are Over 65 This Extra Income Plan Pays You Cash in Addition to Medicare and Other Insurance!

Even though Medicare will pay most of your hospital expenses, it just can't cover everything. Your Extra Income Plan helps solve this problem by paying $100.00 a week, in cash, direct to you, for as long as 100 weeks . . . and gives you the privilege of spending this money any way you want to. With your total benefit amounting to $10,000.00 you'll never have to turn to your children or charity. You'll keep your financial independence and enjoy the peace of mind that this Plan's EXTRA CASH will give you.

Absolutely NO LIMIT On Age

This Plan welcomes you no matter what your age is —and without any qualifications whatsoever! Even if you're over 75 you're still eligible . . . provided, of course, that you fill in and mail the Enrollment Form during this limited enrollment period.

EXTRA CASH Gives Peace Of Mind and Security, Helps Replace Lost Income

Everything costs more these days. (Who knows better than you?) Hospital costs alone have TRIPLED in just a few short years . . . and they're expected to DOUBLE soon. While 7 out of 8 Americans have some hospital insurance, most find that benefits simply don't cover ALL the bills that mount up when sickness or accident strikes.

Union Fidelity created this low-cost Hospital Income Plan to help cover your UNCOVERED expenses while hospitalized . . . to put EXTRA CASH in your hand for bills from the doctor, the surgeon, the nurse, the druggist or anyone else who provides service and treatment you need and want. You may even have enough left over to help REPLACE any income you lose because of your confinement.

And remember: Your EXTRA CASH is paid direct to you . . . and you use it any way you want to.

These Are The Only Exclusions!

The new Union Fidelity "Extra Income Hospital Plan" has NO WAITING PERIODS. It covers you immediately for every possible kind of sickness and accident except, of course, hospitalization caused by mental disorders; act of war; pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage; or care provided in a government hospital. It even covers you for any chronic ailment or pre-existing condition after your policy has been in force for only 2 years. EVERYTHING ELSE IS COVERED!

Send No Money—Special Offer Expires Midnight of Date Shown on Coupon Below!

To introduce you to this remarkable new Plan we are making this unusual offer with a Money-Back Guarantee. To take advantage of this tax-free "Extra Income Hospital Plan"—Form 478—fill in the Enrollment Form on this page and mail it before Midnight of the expiration date shown.

When you receive your policy, examine in the privacy of your home. Show it to your lawyer, your doctor, your clergyman or any advisor. Then decide for yourself . . . and while you're making up your mind, you can be protected by this wonderful Plan by sending in only one month's premium at the low rates shown below. If the Extra Cash Income Plan isn't everything we say it is, return the policy within 30 days and your money will be cheerfully refunded with no questions asked. However, if you decide to continue this worthwhile protection, you may do so at these low rates:

Union Fidelity Monthly Rates

Age at Enrollment	Monthly Premium
0-39	only $3.80
40-54	only $4.80
55-64	only $5.80
65-74	only $6.80
75 and over	only $9.10

NOTE: The regular Monthly Premium shown here (for your age at time of enrollment) is the exact amount you will continue to pay for the life of your policy. It will never increase because you pass from one age bracket to the next! It won't even change because of frequent claims or the amount of money you collect. It can change only if there is a general rate adjustment affecting all policies of this type in your state.

How Can We Offer All This Protection for So Little?

If you're lucky, you can buy ordinary insurance at any time and pay regular rates. But NOW—with just a stroke of your pen—you can get Union Fidelity's $100 a week ($14.28 per day) Extra Cash Income Plan for the special low cost shown above. And how is this possible? BECAUSE UNION FIDELITY ENROLLS A LARGE NUMBER OF PEOPLE AT ONE TIME . . . direct by mail. This highly efficient "mass enrollment" cuts our costs to the bone. We are able to issue thousands of policies in a few short days. By this method our overhead expenses are reduced drastically. And the savings are passed on to you!

And bear this in mind: the rate you pay now will never be increased because of changes in your health or age—nor will your benefits ever be reduced!

A Nationally Respected Company

As important as the cash income itself, the low cost and ease of enrollment, is this one vital fact: Your policy is backed by the resources, integrity and national reputation of Union Fidelity Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia, an old line legal reserve company licensed in 49 states and Washington, D.C.

Easy To Join—No Red Tape— No Salesman Will Call

Join NOW. During this limited enrollment period there are no qualifications whatsoever . . . but you must mail the Enrollment Form BEFORE the Midnight deadline. 18 Important Questions Answered

That tell you how Union Fidelity's $100.00-A-Week Extra Cash Income Plan gives you the protection you need—at amazingly low cost!

1. How much will this policy pay me when I go to the hospital?
   You will receive $100.00 per week.
2. When will my hospitalization benefits start?
   The day you enter the hospital.
3. Will I be paid if I am in the hospital for less than a full week?
   Yes. This new Plan pays if you are in the hospital for only a day, or a week, a month, a year.
4. Does this policy have any "waiting periods" before I can use it?
   No. It will go in force on the very same day that we receive your payment for the first month's coverage.
5. How long will I continue to receive my Extra Cash?
   For every day you are hospitalized for as long as 100 weeks for every covered accident or sickness.
6. Is there any red tape to join?
   No. We only ask you to complete and mail your Enrollment Form before the deadline date shown. No questions to answer. No salesman will call.
7. Suppose I collect benefits for a certain sickness or accident. What happens if I am hospitalized again for the same condition?
   You go back to collecting your $100.00 a week until you've been hospitalized for a total of 100 weeks and have collected $10,000.00. Then, if the same condition puts you back in the hospital after you've resumed your normal activities for six months, you become eligible to receive $100.00 a week again, for up to 100 additional weeks. Any new condition will be covered immediately, of course.
8. How may I use these benefit payments?
   You may use them any way you wish—for hospital and doctor bills, rent, food, household expenses or anything else. You alone decide how to use the money.
9. Why do I need your Extra Cash Plan in addition to my other insurance?
   Chances are your present hospital insurance won't cover all your hospital and medical expenses. Even if it did, you will still need extra cash to cover all your household expenses.
10. May I join if I am over 65?
    Yes. You are welcome to join no matter what your age is. This Plan has no age limit.
11. Can you drop me? Can you raise my rates?
    No. We will never cancel or refuse to renew your policy for health reasons so long as you make your premium payments on time. Also, we guarantee that we will never cancel your protection or adjust your rate unless we take the same action with regard to all policies of this type in your state. You, of course, can drop your policy on any renewal date.
12. What is not covered by this policy?
    The only conditions not covered are hospitalization caused by mental disorders; act of war; pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage; or care provided in a government hospital. You are even covered for any chronic ailment or pre-existing condition after your policy has been in force for only two years. Everything else is covered.
13. Can other members of my family take advantage of this special offer?
    Yes. Just add their names to the Enrollment Form when you fill it in.
14. Why is this offer good for a limited time only?
    Because by enrolling a large number of people at the same time our underwriting, processing and policy issue costs can be kept at a minimum. These savings, of course, are passed on to you.
15. Do I need a medical examination or a statement from my doctor?
    Definitely not. Send no money. Just fill in the Enrollment Form and mail today.
16. What other advantages are there of joining this Plan now?
    By joining now you do not need to complete a regular application—just the brief form in the lower right-hand corner of this page. Also, during this enrollment period, there are no other qualifications—no "waivers" or restrictive endorsements can be put on your policy.
17. How does the Money-Back Guarantee work?
    Examine your policy carefully in the privacy of your home. If for any reason you are not completely satisfied, return it within 30 days and we will promptly refund your money. Meanwhile, you will be protected while making your decision.
18. How do I join?
    Fill in the brief Enrollment Form (be sure to sign your name) and send no money. Mail it to Union Fidelity Life. 104 South Main Street, Fond du Lac, Wisconsin 54935

Set Conference On School Aid

LANSING (AP) — In an attempt to "get action this year" a group of politically potent organizations have scheduled a Lansing conference March 31 on a formula for state school aid.

Mrs. Jane Tate, a regional vice president of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers, announced the conference in Detroit.

"Michigan public schools are in desperate trouble," she said.

Besides the Parent-Teacher Congress, she listed about 30 sponsoring organizations.

The United Auto Workers Union, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Michigan Federation of Teachers, Michigan Education Association, Michigan Farm Bureau, Central Committees of both the Democratic and Republican parties and the Michigan AFL-CIO council.

She said 74 Michigan school districts had deficits last June and the number will be greater next September.

Among other things, Mrs. Tate said the conference will form a Citizens Task Force for each congressional district "to implement action in the coming months."

Blind Studying Auto Mechanics

LANSING (AP) — A little boy who got a nickel for telling people where "strange noises" were in their car motors is studying the intricate art of automobile mechanics at Lansing Community College.

And he's "one of the best students in the class," says his instructor.

Thomas Munn is blind.

Munn, 21, says he first became interested in mechanics when, as a little boy, he paid regular visits to a neighborhood service station.

"I'd ask all about the cars they were fixing," Munn recalls. People offered nickels to see him point to problem areas in the motors and "I guess that's how I became interested in cars," he says.

Later, Munn and his brother formed a team at a southwest Michigan raceway, with the brother as the driver and Munn as mechanic.

He was graduated from the Michigan School For The Blind at Lansing two years ago and had a hard time finding a school where he could study auto mechanics.

"Colleges would accept me for other courses, but not in automotive repair," he says.

LCC enrolled him on a trial basis last fall. In June, Munn will have completed most of his course work, with a B average. Then, he'll look for a job.

The curly-haried youth says his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Munn of Fulton, taught him "to do things for myself — provide my own entertainment."

His blindness, caused by congenital cataracts and glaucoma, could not be cured by the two operations he underwent as a baby.

Avert Strike By Ferry Workers

FRANKFORT (AP) — An elventh-hour settlement apparently has averted a strike threatened today by 89 workers of the Ann Arbor car ferry at Frankfort.

A spokesman for the Seafarers International Union in Detroit said final agreement was reached between the union and the Ann Arbor Railroad Marine Division late yesterday.

Earlier this week, a dispute over hourly wages was resolved, and the last stumbling block reportedly had been the union's request for an increased premium payment for the union pension program.

The new contract covers 18 months. No further details were announced pending ratification by union members.

From voteless status before 1947, Japanese women have risen to fill presidencies of colleges, cabinet posts and seats in the Diet.

Plymouth Scores Most Points in Three Tests

A Plymouth Fury I scored the highest number of points of all 60 cars that competed in fuel economy, acceleration and braking tests of the Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials at Daytona Beach, Fla.

The Plymouth Fury, competing in Class V for cars equipped with standard V-8 engines, scored a total of 98 performance points out of a possible 100.

Two other Plymouth entries finished first in their respective classes, giving the Plymouth line of cars winners in three out of the nine classes of competition.

Other Plymouth winners were a Valiant Signet in Class VII for six-cylinder compact economy cars, and a Barracuda in Class IX for sports compacts.

The Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials, held under the supervision of the National Association for Stock Car Racing, compared the basic performance characteristics of American-made 1969 models which are in the popular price ranges.

The fuel economy tests measured a car's fuel consumption at an average speed of 40 miles per hour over a distance of 18.567 miles.

The acceleration tests measured the time it took a car to accelerate from 25 to 70 miles per hour.

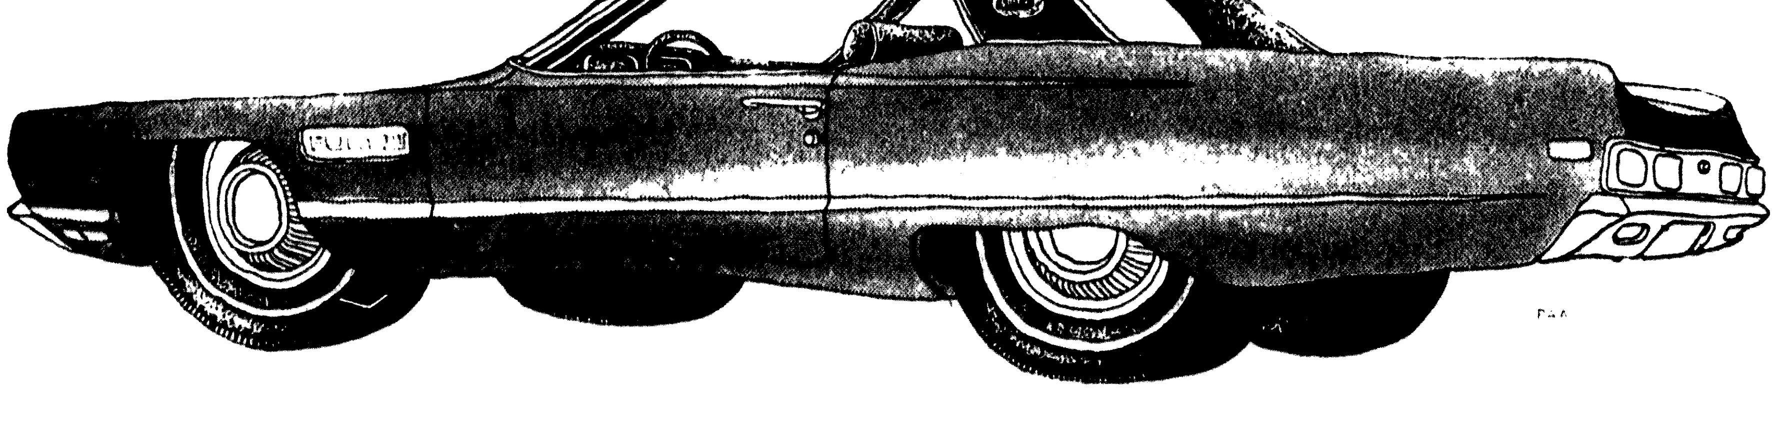
The braking tests demonstrated the car's high speed stopping capability immediately after severe brake usage.

The 60 stock cars competing in the tests were taken directly from dealers' showrooms throughout the country to provide a realistic comparison of various makes and models.

Wagon Air Deflector

The 1969 Plymouth Fury station wagon models have a new and efficient air deflector, mounted at the rear of the roof to divert air around and across the big rear window, significantly reducing vision obstruction. By blowing clean air over the window, the deflector prevents rain, dust and grit from accumulating.

Announcing a special new Plymouth.



At a special low price.

Everyone says special, but we really mean it. Snapper's a new limited edition car like Plymouth has never made before. It'll shield you from weather's whims under a groovy turtle-shell vinyl top and carry you in a metallic muted-gold body. It has a "camp" Snapper emblem, like the one in the middle, on each roof pillar. An extended roofline that lets your rear seat passengers actually lean back (over 3" extra head room). And, of course, many of the "special" features that most people want: deluxe vinyl interior, white sidewalls, deluxe wheel covers, bumper guards, and a kicky little time-delay ignition switch light, all at a special package price (again, we really mean special). Naturally, you can personalize a Snapper even more, with everything from a Super Commando 440 V-8 to air conditioning or 8-track stereo; just ask your dealer. As a limited edition model with your own personal options, Snapper is a truly individual vehicle. See one now, at your Plymouth Dealer.

2,000 Teams of Students Competing in Plymouth's Trouble Shooting Contest

Teams of student mechanics from more than 2,000 high schools and colleges in every state of the Union will compete for $125,000 worth of prizes in the 21st annual Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest.

The contest is sponsored by the Chrysler-Plymouth Division of Chrysler Motors Corporation and Plymouth Dealers of America to encourage students with mechanical talent to continue their education and pursue careers in the growing automotive service business.

The winning two-man team at each of the 100 regional and state contests being held this spring will compete for $125,000 worth of scholarships, prizes, trophies and automotive equipment for their schools at the National Finals at the Indianapolis 500 Speedway in mid-June.

Winners at local and national contests are chosen by the speed and skill with which they find and fix malfunctions under the hood of a new Plymouth and restore the car to normal operating condition. All teams work on identical cars that have been deliberately tampered with in the same way.

Plymouth Dealers sponsor a two-man team from their local school and make a Plymouth car available to practice on. The teams from the 2,000 participating schools, which have a combined enrollment of 150,000 students taking automotive shop courses, are selected by school instructors.

The Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest originated in Los Angeles in 1949. It was sponsored by Plymouth Dealers there who sought to recruit young men as mechanic trainees. The annual contest grew in size as educators gave it their support.

Since the contest became national in scope in 1962, scholarships have been awarded to 116 students and full or part-time jobs have been found for more than 15,000 young men.

their education and pursue careers in the growing automotive service business.

The winning two-man team at each of the 100 regional and state contests being held this spring will compete for $125,000 worth of scholarships, prizes, trophies and automotive equipment for their schools at the National Finals at the Indianapolis 500 Speedway in mid-June.

Winners at local and national contests are chosen by the speed and skill with which they find and fix malfunctions under the hood of a new Plymouth and restore the car to normal operating condition. All teams work on identical cars that have been deliberately tampered with in the same way.

Plymouth Dealers sponsor a two-man team from their local school and make a Plymouth car available to practice on. The teams from the 2,000 participating schools, which have a combined enrollment of 150,000 students taking automotive shop courses, are selected by school instructors.

The Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest originated in Los Angeles in 1949. It was sponsored by Plymouth Dealers there who sought to recruit young men as mechanic trainees. The annual contest grew in size as educators gave it their support.

Since the contest became national in scope in 1962, scholarships have been awarded to 116 students and full or part-time jobs have been found for more than 15,000 young men.

Longest Air Operation In Korean War Games

YOJU, Korea (AP) — A two-star general and a Medal of Honor sergeant led 1,320 U.S. paratroopers in a jump into South Korea today at the climax of an 8,500-mile trans-Pacific assault operation.

It began five days of war games called Focus Retina.

Near the end of the jump the static line of Pfc. Joseph Nadeau, 22, caught and he dangled from a C130 transport plane. The craft circled back to the drop zone and the crew cut the trooper loose. He landed safely.

The men of the 82nd Airborne Division were flown from Ft. Bragg, N.C., to the muddy reaches of the North Han River, 35 miles south of Seoul, in what the U.S. military said was the longest air operation in history.

C141 Starlifter jet transports ferried the first batch of 720 soldiers into the operations area from Okinawa, two and a half hours away. Delayed 24 hours by a snowstorm here Sunday, they completed the journey from North Carolina in close to 55 hours. Maj. Gen. John R. Deane Jr., their commander, and Sgt. 1. C. Charles D. Morris, who won the Medal of Honor in Vietnam, were the first to hit the silk as the gray parachutes dotted the sky.

N. Korean Meet

While the airdrops were taking place, North Korea called a special meeting of the Military Armistice Commission at Panmunjom to demand the exercise be canceled. It was the second North Korean protest in a week.

The U.S. delegate, Maj. Gen. James B. Knapp, rejected the North Korean demand. In a reference to a sharp increase of hostile North Korean action over the weekend in which seven Americans and a South Korean were killed, he said:

"Your naked aggression convinces the United Nations Command that exercises such as Focus Retina will continue to be necessary to enable the U.N. Command to defeat aggression whenever and wherever it may come."

Before the paratroopers jumped, other C141s dropped the battalion's vehicles and 105mm howitzers into the area.

Less than 15 minutes after the men from Okinawa landed, another 600 men of the 82nd, moved to Korea several days ago, jumped in to join them

Preplanning

The American show took place an hour after 600 South Korean paratroopers had set the stage with a smoothly executed jump to repel "invaders" from the mythical Communist country of Hatarkal.

Bonesteel, watching the drop, said the exercise demonstrated "magnificent preplanning" and was a "vivid demonstration" of the capability of the U.S. Strike Command to move to trouble spots anywhere in the world on short notice.

After the paratroopers secure a bridgehead and defend it against "aggressor" attacks, 7,000 troops from the U.S. 7th Infantry Division based in Korea will launch a series of assaults that will end Friday when objectives are seized.

Inmates Claiming 'We Was Wrong'

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — "We was wrong . . ." stated a letter from about 60 inmates of a state jail in a letter to Corrections Commissioner Ellis MacDougall.

The inmates said they were apologizing for their peaceful, seven-hour sitdown demonstration last weekend over a television curfew they felt was too early. Not even the warden knew about the letter of apology, they said.

"The Demonstration was from the tenshion that builds up in any institution," they wrote to MacDougall, "it would have happened even if you had been here."

Extend Sentence Of Militant Monk

SAIGON (AP) — A militant Buddhist leader already sentenced to 10 years at hard labor was convicted today of harboring and assisting deserters and draft dodgers. He was given a second sentence of five years in solitary confinement, to run concurrently with the other.

The monk, Thich Thien Minh, did not attend today's trial, saying he was "too tired" and would accept whatever verdict the court handed down.

His first sentence, for harboring conspirators and illegal possession of weapons, explosives and Communist documents, was imposed Saturday. He had denied all the charges.

The first trial brought a heated protest from the An Quang Buddhist sect, which called the verdict "unjust and inhuman."

Thich Tri Quang, once the most powerful Buddhist leader in South Vietnam, emerged Sunday from two years of seclusion in a pagoda and accused the United States of helping President Nguyen Van Thieu repress Buddhists.

Tri Quang led the Buddhist movement which played a big part in the overthrow of President Ngo Dinh Diem's regime in 1963. Anti-Americanism has been a basic element of his political activity for years, although the U.S. Embassy gave him asylum after Diem's troops started invading pagodas in the summer of 1963.

Tri Quang and other Buddhist leaders published a resolution saying the government of Thieu, a Roman Catholic, is "using the support of foreigners to continue the program of Mr. Diem to destroy Buddhism with different and barbarous forms." Diem also was a Catholic and the brother of the archbishop of Hue.

Asked what foreigners were meant, Tri Quang replied: "Americans are responsible for everything that happens here."

Anti-Semitism Among Blacks Is ETV Show Topic

MARQUETTE — The current controversy about black anti-semitism and Jewish racisism is examined through group dynamics involving Negroes and Jews on "Some of Our Best Friends" at 7:30 tonight on WNMR-TV.

Other featured programs this week on Northern Michigan University's educational television station include:

A documentary on the life and work of Russian composer Dimitri Shostakovich, at 9:30 tonight.

Results of study by law enforcement officials on consumer frauds and "white collar" crimes, at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Film reports on Nepal's diplomatic balancing act, Barbados' poverty amid touristic plenty, and uncomfortable Americans roaming the Amazon on a houseboat at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

A film portrait of country music singer Johnny Cash, at 7 p.m. Friday.

A dramatized version of E. M. Forester's famous novel, "A Passage to India," at 9 p.m. Friday.

Killed In Crash

BENTON HARBOR (AP) — Alexander German, 29, of Detroit was killed Sunday when the single-engine plane in which he was practicing landings and take-offs plummeted to the ground.

Battle Over; Kremlin, Peking Trade Protests

MOSCOW (AP) — The Manchurian border appeared quiet today after another weekend clash between Soviet and Red Chinese troops. Pravda said local elections were held on the Soviet side Sunday and "100 per cent of the electorate voted except those who fell in battle."

There was still no word on casualties in the battle that began Friday and resumed Saturday on disputed Damansky-Chenpao island in the frozen Ussuri River. Moscow said 31 Russian soldiers were killed there in a clash March 2, while the Chinese said many of their troops also were killed.

Pravda, the Communist party newspaper said Soviet frontier guards fought Saturday for seven hours under a hail of fire. There was no fuss, no fidgeting. In the extremely complicated situation each knew his task and acted selflessly and courageously."

Snow Darkened

The paper concluded: "A powerful artillery barrage struck the firing positions of the Maoists who instigated the clash, and a fast attack swept all the raiders off Damansky Island."

Maj. Gen. Vasily Lobanov, who commands the Pacific Ocean frontier district, said Red China fielded up to a regiment of infantry—about 2,500 men—who attacked Soviet border guards in waves under cover of an artillery barrage.

"The snow became dark from the explosion of shells," Lobanov said in a dispatch from Vladivostok. "Barrage fire from Chinese artillery and mortar batteries covered the island, but not one of the Soviet frontier guards faltered."

Peking Radio said the Russians poured tanks, armored vehicles and troops into the battle, but the Chinese "completely demolished" the Soviets. There was no Soviet confirmation that tanks were used, but Moscow newspapers told of armored troop carrier being deployed to penetrate to the rear of the Chinese force.

"Oceans Of Hatred"

Peking and Moscow exchanged sharp protests again, and newspapers reported "hatred and indignation" and "oceans of hatred" at factory meetings and workers' protests.

About 200 persons gathered Sunday around the Chinese Embassy in Moscow, shouting insults and raising clenched fists, but the demonstration was brief. Soviet newspapers heated up their campaign against Chinese Communist party chairman Mao Tse-tung and warned "Peking adventurists . . . their criminal policy is doomed to failure."

The United Commercial Travelers will meet and elect officers for the year at the new club rooms, 819 Ludington St. at 8 p.m. March 22.

Silhouettes TOPS Club will meet tonight in room 260 of the Junior High School. Weigh-in will be at 7 p.m. followed by the business meeting. New members are welcome.

Residents of the area who have furnished or unfurnished apartments available for persons who were burned out of their homes in Sunday's fire were asked today to notify the Chamber of Commerce at 786-2192.

Court summons for two minors charged with being minors in possession of beer have been issued by city police to Robert L. Stacey, 17, 616 S. 11th St., and Karyn E. Baumler, 18, of 806 4th Ave. S. They were parked in Ludington Park at 1 a.m. Sunday when police investigated. They are to be arraigned in Delta District Court.

Mrs. Beverly Turner of 518 S. 11th St. suffered a fractured left arm and head injury when she fell accidentally Sunday night. The accident occurred at the Don Bichler residence, 2400 Lake Shore Drive, where Mr. and Mrs. Turner were guests. Police summoned an ambulance and Mrs. Turner was taken to St. Francis Hospital.

Escanaba police have issued traffic court notices to Frank G. Shepeck, 713 S. 14th St., improper backing; Steven L. Carlson, Stephenson Rte. 1, Frederick H. Jurmu, 1601 Lake Shore Drive, Loren J. Kositzky, 1228 Stephenson Ave., all for speeding; Mulan A. Jackson, Gladstone Rte. 1, improper U-turn; and Gerry C. Rivard, 1408 Lake Shore Drive, improper lane usage.

Maroons Edge Braves In Five Overtimes

Desperation Shot Sinks Braves In Title Contest

MARQUETTE — Upper Peninsula basketball history was made at Northern Michigan University's C. B. Hedgcock Fieldhouse on Saturday night when the defending U.P. champion Menominee Maroons battled the Gladstone Braves in the championship game of the Class B regional playoffs.

The Maroons managed to capture their third straight regional championship only after Dewey Bellisle sank a 35-foot desperation shot at the buzzer of the fifth overtime period, ending the longest game involving U.P. schools on record. Oddly enough, it was the first time Bellisle had touched the ball in any of the overtime periods.

Gladstone jumped out to a six-point lead before Menominee managed to score a point as Cliff Young dropped in jump shots from the left side of the court and Eric Treichel dropped in another from the left corner. Menominee came roaring back to grab the lead at the 4:45 mark on a layup by Bellisle and remained ahead until Steve Nelson tied the score for Gladstone with a pair of 25-foot jump shots.

Gladstone went ahead by four points in the first three minutes of the second period but the Maroons managed to come back and tie the score again. Neither team could hold the lead from that point until Nelson scored for Gladstone on a tip-in with 28 seconds left in the quarter to give the Braves a 33-31 lead at halftime.

Outstanding Play

Both Nelson and Bellisle were outstanding in the first half, scoring 12 and 14 points respectively and leading their teams in the rebounding department. Nelson attempted six field goals in the half and hit on all six.

Gladstone extended its lead to seven points in the early going of the third quarter on a field goal by Nelson and three free throws by Treichel, but surrendered the lead to the Maroons again at the 2:20 mark of the period on a tip-in by Bellisle. Gladstone wasn't about to give up then and took the lead again at the 1:37 mark on a 20-foot jumper by Mark Weber and held on to hold a three-point margin going into the final period.

The Braves maintained their lead until the 3:19 mark when Jeff Jackl tied the score at 58-58 with a short jump shot. Gladstone missed a chance to wrap up the victory when Young missed a free throw with 53 seconds left on the clock.

Jackl hit for Menominee at the two minute mark of the first overtime period but John Watson tied the score again with a pair of free throws. Weber put the Braves out in front in the second overtime with two free throws but Jackl knotted the score again with another short jumper.

Miss Chances

Both teams held for the last shot in the next two overtime periods but Haglund missed a shot for Menominee with five seconds left in the third overtime and Gladstone missed a chance with a bad pass in the final seconds of the fourth.

Jackl paced Menominee in the scoring department with 22 points and Bellisle followed with 21 and Haglund chipped in with 10. Watson led the Braves in the scoring column with 18 points while Nelson added 16 and Young tossed in 11.

Menominee hit on 28 of 68 field goal attempts in the game and was eight for 13 from the gift stripe while the Braves were 24 of 52 from the outside and 14 of 21 from the free throw line. Bellisle and Jackl also gave the Maroons a 38-29 edge in the rebounding department with 14 and 11 rebounds respectively while Watson was the top man for the Braves with eight.

Gildo Canale, the tournament manager, praised the players after the game by saying it was undoubtedly the finest high school basketball game played on the Northern Michigan fieldhouse floor since 1959. Words of praise echoed all over the building for the play of both teams and in particular for the fine job on the boards turned in by Watson and the spectacular shooting Nelson.

For Gladstone, the game marked the end of an outstanding season, in which the Braves piled up 15 victories against only four defeats. The Braves gained the right to play the Maroons in the championship game by defeating the Holy Name Crusaders and Manistique Emeralds in the district tourney and Ironwood in the semi-finals of regional play.

Red Wings Dealt Defeat In Battle For Playoffs

By The Associated Press

The Detroit Red Wing's modern Production Line produced in record fashion, but a devastating third period — with New York getting four goals—has dealt a blow to Detroit's hopes of making the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

The Red Wings took a 4-2 lead after two periods in the game at New York, but the Rangers came firing back to take a 6-4 National Hockey League victory Sunday night.

The Rangers win gave them 82 points and a firm grip on third place in the NHL's East Division.

In the battle for fourth place—the last playoff spot—Toronto suffered a humiliating 11-3 loss from Boston Sunday, but still kept its position with 78. Detroit, with six games left in the season, is fifth with 76 points.

In other games, Oakland whacked Pittsburgh 7-2, Bobby Hull scored his 52nd and 53rd goals of the season in Chicago's 6-2 romp over Philadelphia and Minnesota edged St. Louis 3-2.

In Saturday's action, Montreal dropped Chicago 3-1, Toronto bombed Boston 7-4, St. Louis nipped Detroit 3-2, Los Angeles dropped Pittsburgh 3-1 and Philadelphia and Minnesota played to a 2-2 tie.

The Rangers wore down some sensational goaltending by Detroit's Roy Edwards with a 25-shot third-period barrage that produced the four goals and victory.

Frank Mahovlich scored his 43th and 44th goals of the season for Detroit and assisted on Gordie Howe's 40th and Alex Delvecchio's 23rd as the Red Wings' modern version of the Production Line ran its total points for the season to a record 230.

It broke the mark of 226 established by Howe, Delvecchio and Ted Lindsay in 1955-56.

But the Rangers inundated Edwards with 57 shots and two goals by Ron Stewart sparked a third-period rally that gave New York the victory. Jean Rattele also scored twice for New York.

Seven different players shared in Oakland's biggest offensive show of the season as the Seals opened a ninepoint lead over Lost Angeles and virtually cinched second place in the West Division.

Rookie Norm Ferguson netted his 30th, matching the mark for rookies set in 1951 by Montreal's Bernie Geoffrion and broken earlier this season by Minnesota's Danny Grant.

Hull moved within one goal of his own single season record of 54 by scoring twice against the Flyers. Pit Martin also had a pair of goals for the Black Hawks, who are buried in the East Division basement.

It was a key defeat for Philadelphia, locked in a threeway struggle with Los Angeles and Minnesota in the West. The Flyers, in fourth place, have 52 points, one less than Los Angeles and two more than Minnesota which stood off a third period rally to beat West champ St. Louis.

Jean Paul Parise and Wait McKechnie scored the third period goals that carried the North Stars to their victory over the Blues.

Gremlins, Royals Win Regional Cage Crowns

MARQUETTE — The Houghton Gremlins and the Marquette Bishop Baraga Royals gained the right to advance to quarter final games of the state tournament this week as they captured titles in the Class C and D regional playoffs respectively Saturday at Northern Michigan University.

Houghton won the Class C title by holding off a St. Ignace rally in the second half to record a 57-53 victory and Bishop Baraga built up a 13-point lead in the first half to knock off the Powers-Spalding Tigers, 69-56, in the Class D finale.

Powers only trailed Bishop Baraga by two points at the end of the first quarter but ran into a cold streak in the second period, hitting only one field goal and scoring only eight points to fall behind by 13.

The two teams played even in the second half, each scoring 33 points, but the Tigers couldn't dent the big 13-point bulge built up by the Royals in the first half. The Tigers did come within nine points, 49-40, during the fourth quarter but fell back once again to the deadly shooting of the Royals.

Steve Hampton paced the Bishop Baraga attack with 20 points while Bob Leanes chipped in with 16 and Fred Huffman added 15 in the winning cause.

Sophomore Bob Mileski paced Powers-Spalding with 19 points and Jack Fleetwood added 17. Dick Smith, the Tigers' top scorer all season long, was held under double figures for the first time this season with nine points.

Houghton let it be known early in the game that it wanted a trip downstate and jumped out to a 32-20 lead over the St. Ignace Saints in the first half behind the scoring of Brian Salo and Gary Lange.

The Gremlins lost Lange, their top scorer, via the foul route midway through the third period and had to rely solely on the ability of Salo. The Saints cut the gap to six points by the end of the third quarter and came within two during the fourth period of play but couldn't overcome the determined Gremlins.

Salo toped the Gremlins in the scoring column with 25 points while Lange and Ron Saarela helped out with 16 and 10 points respectively. Top scorer in the St. Ignace lineup was John McKinnon with 17 points followed closely by Leo Donavan with 16.

Bellisle Heads Tourney Squad

MARQUETTE — Dewey Bellisle of the Class B Regional champion Menominee Maroons heads a ten man All-Tourney team selected by the sportswriters and sportcasters covering the games at Northern Michigan University's C. B. Hedgcock Fieldhouse.

Bellisle also was named as the tournament's outstanding player due to his fine play in both the semi-final and final games. The Menominee senior broke one record in the tournament by scoring 54 points in the two games to give him 133 career points in regional tourney play. The mark exceeds the 111 points scored by L'Anse's Gerry Gerard in 1966 and 1967.

Bellisle was joined on the honor team by his teammate Dave Haglund and Steve Nelson and Cliff Young of the Class B runnerup Gladstone Braves. Also named to the squad were Brian Salo of Houghton, Steve Hampton and Bob Leanes of Marquette Bishop Baraga, Gary Lange of Houghton, John Miklesh of Ironwood and John McKinnon of St. Ignace.

Thirty-five players from the 12 teams competing in the tourney received votes in the balloting for the All-Tourney team.

Desperation Shot Sinks Braves In Title Contest

MARQUETTE — Upper Peninsula basketball history was made at Northern Michigan University's C. B. Hedgcock Fieldhouse on Saturday night when the defending U.P. champion Menominee Maroons battled the Gladstone Braves in the championship game of the Class B regional playoffs.

The Maroons managed to capture their third straight regional championship only after Dewey Bellisle sank a 35-foot desperation shot at the buzzer of the fifth overtime period, ending the longest game involving U.P. schools on record. Oddly enough, it was the first time Bellisle had touched the ball in any of the overtime periods.

Gladstone jumped out to a six-point lead before Menominee managed to score a point as Cliff Young dropped in jump shots from the left side of the court and Eric Treichel dropped in another from the left corner. Menominee came roaring back to grab the lead at the 4:45 mark on a layup by Bellisle and remained ahead until Steve Nelson tied the score for Gladstone with a pair of 25-foot jump shots.

Gladstone went ahead by four points in the first three minutes of the second period but the Maroons managed to come back and tie the score again. Neither team could hold the lead from that point until Nelson scored for Gladstone on a tip-in with 28 seconds left in the quarter to give the Braves a 33-31 lead at halftime.

Outstanding Play

Both Nelson and Bellisle were outstanding in the first half, scoring 12 and 14 points respectively and leading their teams in the rebounding department. Nelson attempted six field goals in the half and hit on all six.

Gladstone extended its lead to seven points in the early going of the third quarter on a field goal by Nelson and three free throws by Treichel, but surrendered the lead to the Maroons again at the 2:20 mark of the period on a tip-in by Bellisle. Gladstone wasn't about to give up then and took the lead again at the 1:37 mark on a 20-foot jumper by Mark Weber and held on to hold a three-point margin going into the final period.

The Braves maintained their lead until the 3:19 mark when Jeff Jackl tied the score at 58-58 with a short jump shot. Gladstone missed a chance to wrap up the victory when Young missed a free throw with 53 seconds left on the clock.

Jackl hit for Menominee at the two minute mark of the first overtime period but John Watson tied the score again with a pair of free throws. Weber put the Braves out in front in the second overtime with two free throws but Jackl knotted the score again with another short jumper.

Miss Chances

Both teams held for the last shot in the next two overtime periods but Haglund missed a shot for Menominee with five seconds left in the third overtime and Gladstone missed a chance with a bad pass in the final seconds of the fourth.

Jackl paced Menominee in the scoring department with 22 points and Bellisle followed with 21 and Haglund chipped in with 10. Watson led the Braves in the scoring column with 18 points while Nelson added 16 and Young tossed in 11.

Menominee hit on 28 of 68 field goal attempts in the game and was eight for 13 from the gift stripe while the Braves were 24 of 52 from the outside and 14 of 21 from the free throw line. Bellisle and Jackl also gave the Maroons a 38-29 edge in the rebounding department with 14 and 11 rebounds respectively while Watson was the top man for the Braves with eight.

Gildo Canale, the tournament manager, praised the players after the game by saying it was undoubtedly the finest high school basketball game played on the Northern Michigan fieldhouse floor since 1959. Words of praise echoed all over the building for the play of both teams and in particular for the fine job on the boards turned in by Watson and the spectacular shooting Nelson.

For Gladstone, the game marked the end of an outstanding season, in which the Braves piled up 15 victories against only four defeats. Gremlins, Royals Win Regional Cage Crowns

MARQUETTE — The Houghton Gremlins and the Marquette Bishop Baraga Royals gained the right to advance to quarter final games of the state tournament this week as they captured titles in the Class C and D regional playoffs respectively Saturday at Northern Michigan University.

Houghton won the Class C title by holding off a St. Ignace rally in the second half to record a 57-53 victory and Bishop Baraga built up a 13-point lead in the first half to knock off the Powers-Spalding Tigers, 69-56, in the Class D finale.

Powers only trailed Bishop Baraga by two points at the end of the first quarter but ran into a cold streak in the second period, hitting only one field goal and scoring only eight points to fall behind by 13.

The two teams played even in the second half, each scoring 33 points, but the Tigers couldn't dent the big 13-point bulge built up by the Royals in the first half. The Tigers did come within nine points, 49-40, during the fourth quarter but fell back once again to the deadly shooting of the Royals.

Steve Hampton paced the Bishop Baraga attack with 20 points while Bob Leanes chipped in with 16 and Fred Huffman added 15 in the winning cause.

Sophomore Bob Mileski paced Powers-Spalding with 19 points and Jack Fleetwood added 17. Dick Smith, the Tigers' top scorer all season long, was held under double figures for the first time this season with nine points.

Houghton let it be known early in the game that it wanted a trip downstate and jumped out to a 32-20 lead over the St. Ignace Saints in the first half behind the scoring of Brian Salo and Gary Lange.

The Gremlins lost Lange, their top scorer, via the foul route midway through the third period and had to rely solely on the ability of Salo. The Saints cut the gap to six points by the end of the third quarter and came within two during the fourth period of play but couldn't overcome the determined Gremlins.

Salo toped the Gremlins in the scoring column with 25 points while Lange and Ron Saarela helped out with 16 and 10 points respectively. Top scorer in the St. Ignace lineup was John McKinnon with 17 points followed closely by Leo Donavan with 16.

Bellisle Heads Tourney Squad

MARQUETTE — Dewey Bellisle of the Class B Regional champion Menominee Maroons heads a ten man All-Tourney team selected by the sportswriters and sportcasters covering the games at Northern Michigan University's C. B. Hedgcock Fieldhouse.

Bellisle also was named as the tournament's outstanding player due to his fine play in both the semi-final and final games. The Menominee senior broke one record in the tournament by scoring 54 points in the two games to give him 133 career points in regional tourney play. The mark exceeds the 111 points scored by L'Anse's Gerry Gerard in 1966 and 1967.

Bellisle was joined on the honor team by his teammate Dave Haglund and Steve Nelson and Cliff Young of the Class B runnerup Gladstone Braves. Also named to the squad were Brian Salo of Houghton, Steve Hampton and Bob Leanes of Marquette Bishop Baraga, Gary Lange of Houghton, John Miklesh of Ironwood and John McKinnon of St. Ignace.

Thirty-five players from the 12 teams competing in the tourney received votes in the balloting for the All-Tourney team.

Previews Of Good Reading

(Another capsule review, courtesy of the Manistique School and Public Library, to acquaint patrons with the new publications available.)

A Jewish family renaming their son with a Christian name? A Jewish family teaching the same child the Lord's Prayer?

Almost unbelievable — but circumstances sometimes dictate unusual measures and a Jewish family living in the 20th Century's "reign of terror" during the Nazi era did just this.

Claude Berri's touching novel, "The Two Of Us," concerns a nine-year-old Jewish boy, adorably mischievous, getting into the most amusing trouble. Ordinarily this would make little difference to his parents but fear that his pranks will expose them to the Nazis makes them reluctantly decide to give him a Christian surname, teach him the Lord's Prayer, and send him off to the country to live with an old peasant and his wife.

As they share a life together, the old man and the boy grow to love one another.

"The Two Of Us," translated from the French by Helen Weaver, tells a marvelous story. The French magazine "Elite," modestly reviewing the novel, opts that "it is undoubtedly one of the most beautiful stories in the world."

Welfare Costs Show Increase

An increase of $4,515.30 in payments to welfare recipients is noted in a comparison of December 1968 and January 1969 benefits paid by the local Social Services Department.

The increase is attributable to a decrease in seasonal employment, affecting employment of woodsworkers and construction workers, and the fact that some families find it necessary to apply for assistance while awaiting other compensation to become available, Nordin explained.

January benefits of $23,949.32 were expended while in December 1968 a total of $19,434.02 was reported.

Under the Old Age Assistance program, for persons 65 years of age and older, a total number of 105 recipients received payments of $6,288. Under the Aid to the Disabled program, 50 individuals received total money payments of $4,854.

A total of 47 families received assistance in the amount of $8,037 under the Aid to Dependent Children program.

Total Aid to the Blind was $312 with three qualifying individuals. Under the Direct Relief Program, a total of 55 cases (both families and individuals) received $4,458.32 in benefits.

15 Lost Lives On State Roads

By The Associated Press

Separate traffic accidents took 15 lives in Michigan over the weekend, as ten persons died in wrecks in which their cars went out of control and either overturned or struck objects ranging from trees to telephone poles and guard rails.

The Associated Press weekend traffic count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

The victims:

Daniel B. Day, 22, of Flushing, in a two-car crash in Flint Saturday.

Mary Logan, 9, of Garden City, struck by a car while Crossing a Garden City street Saturday.

Katherine Mueller, 66, of Roseville, struck by a car Saturday in Roseville.

Phillip LaVerne Worvie, 22, of Columbiaville, whose car struck a tree Saturday in Genesee County's Forest Township.

Lloyd Tomcal Jr., 25, of Chesaning, when his car hit a tree Saturday along M 57 near Chesaning.

Joseph Stanson, 50, of Detroit, when his car struck a bridge abutment on I 696 in the Detroit suburb of Southfield Friday night.

SEPTUAGINT

The translation from Hebrew into Greek of such parts of the Scriptures as then were known began about 250 B.C. Its name, Septuagint, means 70 because of the belief that 70 scholars worked on the translation.

Briefly Told

Central, Fairview, Doyle and Hiawatha schools hot-lunch for Tuesday, March 18, will include turkey steaks, sweet potatoes, cranberry sauce, Hawaiian delight and beverage.

State Police report two car-deer accidents which they investigated on Friday. At 8 p.m. a car driven by Roger Mannion of Westland struck and killed a deer on U.S. 2 in Garfield Township, Mackinac County. At 11:40 p.m. Friday night, on U.S. 2, Nahma Township, an auto driven by Gary Gloss of Bay City also struck a deer. No tickets or excessive property damage were reported.

The Manistique Public Safety Fire Department was called at 9:30 Saturday morning to extinguish a fire in a parked car on S. Cedar St. Considerable damage to the car's interior was reported by the owner, Ray McCarney, 524 Arbutus Ave. Public Safety officers said the fire originated in the front seat of the vehicle.

Funeral services for Mrs. Earl (Eva) Bond will be held at the Messier-Broullire Funeral Home at 10 a.m. Tuesday with Fr. Daniel Zaloga officiating. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery in the spring. Friends may call after 4:30 p.m. today at the funeral home.

Pesticide Fumes Clear Out Town

OROVILLE, Wash. (AP) — About 400 persons, one-fourth of the people in Oroville, were forced to leave town Sunday by fumes from insecticides and fertilizers in a burning orchard supply warehouse.

They returned to their homes in the northwest section of town later in the day.

Wind carried the fumes as far as Osoyoos, B.C., about six miles away, but apparently no one in the path suffered ill effects.

Flames in the block-long wooden warehouse reached the chemicals several hours after the fire started.

355 Children Need Parents

The Michigan Department of Social Services has approximately 355 children under its custody and are seeking adoptive placement for the children, David M. Nordin, Director of the Schoolcraft County Dept. of Social Services said this week.

Not only are white and Negro children available, Nordin added, but also children of mixed races. About 21 American-Indian children are included in the total.

The children range in age from infancy to 18 years and approximately 115 have mental and physical handicaps.

Couples interested in adopting a child and who will not stipulate that they must have a normal, blonde, blue-eyed child may contact Nordin's office for further information.

Adoptive screening and evaluation will be conducted by the local social services office.

Airport Subject Of Board Meet

Possible improvements and expansion of the county airport will be discussed by the County Board of Supervisors when they meet Tuesday night for their March meeting.

City Supervisor Norman W. Jahn will report on project plans for the airport.

Annual reports from the County Road Commission, Department of Social Services, Friend of the Court and Civil Defense, and Prosecuting Attorney will also be offered the board.

Thurman Skarritt Sr., Seney-Mueller-Germfask Supervisor, will also report on a health meeting he attended in Mount Pleasant recently.

The Board will meet at 7:00 p.m. in the Court House.

Hospital

Admitted to Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital on Friday were Effie Wehner, Robert Males, Alan Smith, Angus McDonald and Michael Walters.

Discharged were Walter Ross, Robert Casteel and Torri Segerstrom.

Top College Powers In Showdown Week

This is showdown week in major college basketball.

By dusk Saturday night, two teams will have plucked the prize plums for 1969 in action at Louisville, Ky., and New York City.

Defending champion UCLA, with the great Lew Alcindor; Drake, Purdue and North Carolina go for the big prize at Louisville. In Thursday night's NCAA semifinals, Drake collides with UCLA and North Carolina battles Purdue.

Eight teams remain in the National Invitation Tournament in New York, including St. Peter's of New Jersey, Temple, Ohio University, Tennessee, South Carolina, Army, Louisville and Boston College.

St. Peter's meets Temple and Ohio University takes on Tennessee tonight in the first of the NIT's quarter-final fireworks.

Finals in both tournaments are scheduled Saturday afternoon.

Drake got its golden opportunity to try its luck against UCLA last Saturday when the Bulldogs tripped Colorado State University 84-77 in the Midwest Regional finals at Manhattan, Kan. UCLA, with Alcindor contributing 17 points, breezed past Santa Clara 90-52 in the Western Regionals at Los Angeles.

North Carolina and Purdue survived the Regionals in identical fashion—on 20-foot jump shots in the final seconds that brought defeat for their respective opponents.

The Tar Heels edged Davidson 87-85 on Charlie Scott's 20-footer at College Park, Md., in the Eastern Regionals. Purdue's Boilermakers nipped Marquette 75-73 on a similar field goal by All-American Rick Mount at Madison, Wis., in overtime in the Mideast Regionals.

Louisville remained in the NIT Sunday by wearing down Fordham 73-70, and Boston College advanced with a 78-62 triumph over Kansas. In last Saturday's first-round activity, South Carolina rolled over Southern Illinois 72-63 and Army disposed of Wyoming 51-49.

Drake will face giant-killer UCLA with a 12-game victory streak in the record books. Willie McCarter, who chipped in with 21 points in the conquest of CSU, doesn't hesitate to say he thinks the Bulldogs can beat the proud Bruins.

"That's the one we want, UCLA," McCarter said after the Bulldogs found out the Bruins were their next foe. "That's who we want to play."

Drake Coach Maury John said his team won't hold the ball in an effort to beat UCLA. "I doubt if our plan will call for a drastic departure from our regular game," John said. "The thing we've got to hope for is a good shooting night."

UCLA is seeking its third straight national title, unprecedented in college basketball, and the Bruins would like nothing better than to snare it as the climax to Alcindor's illustrious career.

Johnny Wooden, the UCLA coach, sounded this warning:

"I think we're sharp again and ready mentally."

One second remained when Scott canned his winning jump shot for North Carolina after the Tar Heels had clung to the ball for more than the final 60 seconds. Scott's shot gave him 32 points for the see-saw struggle, 23 in the second half.

Mount regarded his 20-footer in Purdue's victory over Marquette as "the biggest shot I've ever made." He collected 26 points. The regulation game had ended 63-63. Marquette once trailed by 11 points.

Saturday night's four regional consolations saw Kentucky squeeze by Miami, Ohio, 72-71; Duquesne down St. John's, N.Y., 75-72; Colorado thrash Texas A&M 97-82, and Weber State Edge New Mexico State 58-56.

Eastern New Mexico won the small college NAIA championship at Kansas City by routing Maryland State 99-76. Central Washington defeated Elizabeth City, N.C., 96-82 for third.

Denver Captures NCAA Puck Title

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo (AP) — For the second time, the University of Denver has captured two NCAA hockey championships in a row. Now the Pioneers can shoot next season at Michigan's mark of three straight, set in 1951-53.

"It was as tough as any championship game we've played," DU coach Murray Armstrong said after watching his skaters beat Cornell, top team in eastern hockey, 4-3 in the Broadmoor World Arena Saturday night.

Harvard won the consolation game by battling to a 6-5 victory over Michigan Tech in a second overtime period Saturday. Cliff Gurry scored the winning goal for Harvard with less than two minutes remaining in the second, 10-minute extra period.

Tech, champion of the Western Collegiate Hockey Association, surged from a 4-2 deficit in the first period to a 4-4 tie in the second stanza. The Huskies Ahlsten's goal but Bob Bauer knotted the score at 5-5 and forced the overtime.

Goalie Gerry Powers, whose play was excellent in both of Denver's tournament victories, said he watched the university's ski team win NCAA trophies two years ago and "I vowed I'd never play again on anything but a championship team."

Armstrong paid special tribute to Powers, defenseman Keith Magnuson and center Bob Trembecky, all of whom closed out their collegiate hockey careers.

Powers, Magnuson, Thembecky and forward Tom Miller were named to the all-tournament team along with wing Brian Cornell and defenseman Bruce Pattison of Cornell. Magnuson was voted the Most Valuable Player.

Cornell, Eastern Collegiate Hockey Association champion, never did get a lead over the defending champs. But the Ithacans twice tied the score at 1-1 and 2-2 before Denver broke it open in the first 12 minutes of the final period.

The defeat was only the second of the season for Cornell. The Ivy League team won 25 in a row and finished with 27 triumphs.

Marichal Ends Holdout; Triumphs In 1st Outing

By The Associated Press

Juan Marichal, who waited two weeks for the San Francisco Giants to pay his price, has served shorter notice on National League hitters.

Marichal, who signed a $115,000 contract Sunday night, ending a two-week holdout, hurled four perfect innings Sunday in the Giants' 9-2 exhibition victory over the Chicago Cubs.

The 30-year-old Giants ace, 26-9 last season, threw only an occasional fastball in his spring debut but disposed of the 12 Cubs he faced on 41 pitches. "I figured if I got it over, I'd get somebody out," he said. "They'd hit it somewhere, maybe over the fence."

The Cubs hit three fair balls out of the infield while Marichal was on the mound.

Elsewhere, the Baltimore Orioles and Cleveland Indians kept exhibition winning streaks alive—with considerably less ease than Marichal and the Giants tamed the Cubs.

Eighth-inning doubles by Brooks Robinson and Merv Rettenmund keyed a two-run rally that carried the Orioles past Cincinnati 3-2 for their sixth straight victory. Cleveland outlasted California 14-10, running its string to seven, in a struggle that produced 26 hits, 13 walks and eight errors.

Atlanta nipped Washington 4-3, pinning Ted Williams' Senators with their ninth loss in 10 starts; Kansas City shaded the Pittsburgh B team 2-1; the New York Yankees topped Detroit 5-3; Oakland bombed Seattle 13-6; Los Angeles shaded the Chicago White Sox 3-1 and San Diego beat Arizona Western College 6-1.

Rain washed out four scheduled games—Houston-Minnesota, Montreal-New York Mets, Philadelphia-Pittsburgh and St. Louis-Boston.

Trailing 2-1 in the eighth, the Orioles slipped past Cincinnati on Dave May's two-out single and the doubles by Robinson and Rettenmund. Dave Nelson paced Cleveland's 13-hit attack with four singles in as many trips to the plate.

The Braves scored twice in the seventh to overcome a 3-2 Washington lead, Hank Aaron driving in the go-ahead run with a sacrifice fly. Pinch hitter Ed Kirkpatrick tripled home two runs in the eighth, powering Kansas City past the Pirates B squad.

A five-run sixth inning burst, triggered by Billy Cowan's two-run single, and newcomer Mike Kekich's strong pitching enabled the Yanks to get by Detroit. Jim Pagliaroni led the Oakland assault against Seattle with a double and three singles. Tommy Davis had a triple, double and two singles for the losers.

Willie Davis stroked three hits as the Dodgers trimmed the White Sox at Nassau, the Bahamas. Singles by Tom Haller and rookie Bill Russell and a sacrifice fly by Jim Lefebvre delivered the Los Angeles runs.

Four San Diego pitchers—Dave Roberts, Dick James, Fred Kapewczik and Dick Dare—combined for a six-hitter and Tony Gonzalez, the Padres' wild card pinch hitter poked a two-run single against Arizona Western.

Pistons Extend Winless Streak

By The Associated Press

By the time they got to Phoenix, the Detroit Pistons probably wished today they were sleeping … so they could perhaps forget for a time the disasterous National Basketball Association nightmare they are living.

The Pistons, who meet Phoenix in their third to last NBA contest of the season tonight, suffered their fifth straight defeat Sunday night, losing to San Diego 120-111. It was the fourth loss on a tour of the West, begun a week ago.

Don Kojis, who led San Diego to victory over Detroit Thursday by scoring 33, hit 34 points Sunday to devastate the Pistons.

The victory, the Rockets' third straight, gave them a 1½-game lead over Chicago in the battle for fourth place in the Western Division — the final playoff berth.

Detroit is in sixth place in the East Division, 27 games behind front-running Baltimore. Only Milwaukee, 31 games back in the East, and Phoenix, 37 behind in the West, have worse NBA records.

In other NBA games Sunday, Los Angeles bombarded Boston 108-73, and the Atlanta Hawks edged Seattle 131-127 in overtime.

In the American Basketball Association, Indiana mauled Minnesota 114-113, Denver whipped Oakland 131-119, Dallas took Kentucky 104-100, and Miami beat New York 116-103.

In the game at San Diego, the Rockets had seven men in double figures for the first time in their two-year history.

Happy Hairston led Detroit with 22 points.

Elvin Hayes of San Diego, the league's leading scorer, collected 15 points but sat out the last 11 minutes with a muscle strain in his left leg. The injury was not considered serious.

Los Angeles rookie Bill Hewitt, the Lakers' No. 1 draft choice last year, led the way with 19 points as teammates Elgin Baylor got 17, Jerry West 14 and Wilt Chamberlain 11 in the victory over Boston.

The Lakers flashed to a 55-36 halftime lead at Boston and went on to hand the Celtics their 34th setback of the season. With four games remaining, the defending NBA champs are two losses short of their 1955-club record.

Lou Hudson scored nine of the 25 points in overtime, leading the Hawks past Seattle after they had blown a 19-point third quarter lead. Joe Caldwell also hit for 25 Atlanta points while Art Harris was high for the SuperSonics with 31-18 of them in the third period.

In Saturday action, Baltimore edged Boston 99-98, Philadelphia nipped Atlanta 122-120, New York turned back Cincinnati 121-108, Chicago whipped Seattle 101-83 and San Diego overwhelmed Phoenix 141-124.

Wisconsin's new athletic director, Elroy 'Crazy Legs' Hirsch, won four varsity letters in one season at Michigan.

Top College Powers In Showdown Week

This is showdown week in major college basketball.

By dusk Saturday night, two teams will have plucked the prize plums for 1969 in action at Louisville, Ky., and New York City.

Defending champion UCLA, with the great Lew Alcindor; Drake, Purdue and North Carolina go for the big prize at Louisville. In Thursday night's NCAA semifinals, Drake collides with UCLA and North Carolina battles Purdue.

Eight teams remain in the National Invitation Tournament in New York, including St. Peter's of New Jersey, Temple, Ohio University, Tennessee, South Carolina, Army, Louisville and Boston College.

St. Peter's meets Temple and Ohio University takes on Tennessee tonight in the first of the NIT's quarter-final fireworks.

Finals in both tournaments are scheduled Saturday afternoon.

Drake got its golden opportunity to try its luck against UCLA last Saturday when the Bulldogs tripped Colorado State University 84-77 in the Midwest Regional finals at Manhattan, Kan. UCLA, with Alcindor contributing 17 points, breezed past Santa Clara 90-52 in the Western Regionals at Los Angeles.

North Carolina and Purdue survived the Regionals in identical fashion—on 20-foot jump shots in the final seconds that brought defeat for their respective opponents.

The Tar Heels edged Davidson 87-85 on Charlie Scott's 20-footer at College Park, Md., in the Eastern Regionals. Purdue's Boilermakers nipped Marquette 75-73 on a similar field goal by All-American Rick Mount at Madison, Wis., in overtime in the Mideast Regionals.

Louisville remained in the NIT Sunday by wearing down Fordham 73-70, and Boston College advanced with a 78-62 triumph over Kansas. In last Saturday's first-round activity, South Carolina rolled over Southern Illinois 72-63 and Army disposed of Wyoming 51-49.

Drake will face giant-killer UCLA with a 12-game victory streak in the record books. Willie McCarter, who chipped in with 21 points in the conquest of CSU, doesn't hesitate to say he thinks the Bulldogs can beat the proud Bruins.

"That's the one we want, UCLA," McCarter said after the Bulldogs found out the Bruins were their next foe. "That's who we want to play."

Drake Coach Maury John said his team won't hold the ball in an effort to beat UCLA. "I doubt if our plan will call for a drastic departure from our regular game," John said. "The thing we've got to hope for is a good shooting night."

UCLA is seeking its third straight national title, unprecedented in college basketball, and the Bruins would like nothing better than to snare it as the climax to Alcindor's illustrious career.

Johnny Wooden, the UCLA coach, sounded this warning:

"I think we're sharp again and ready mentally."

One second remained when Scott canned his winning jump shot for North Carolina after the Tar Heels had clung to the ball for more than the final 60 seconds. Scott's shot gave him 32 points for the see-saw struggle, 23 in the second half.

Mount regarded his 20-footer in Purdue's victory over Marquette as "the biggest shot I've ever made." He collected 26 points. The regulation game had ended 63-63. Marquette once trailed by 11 points.

Saturday night's four regional consolations saw Kentucky squeeze by Miami, Ohio, 72-71; Duquesne down St. John's, N.Y., 75-72; Colorado thrash Texas A&M 97-82, and Weber State Edge New Mexico State 58-56.

Eastern New Mexico won the small college NAIA championship at Kansas City by routing Maryland State 99-76. Central Washington defeated Elizabeth City, N.C., 96-82 for third.

Denver Captures NCAA Puck Title

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — For the second time, the University of Denver has captured two NCAA hockey championships in a row. Now the Pioneers can shoot next season at Michigan's mark of three straight, set in 1951-53.

"It was as tough as any championship game we've played," DU coach Murray Armstrong said after watching his skaters beat Cornell, top team in eastern hockey, 4-3 in the Broadmoor World Arena Saturday night.

Harvard won the consolation game by battling to a 6-5 victory over Michigan Tech in a second overtime period Saturday. Cliff Gurry scored the winning goal for Harvard with less than two minutes remaining in the second, 10-minute extra period.

Tech, champion of the Western Collegiate Hockey Association, surged from a 4-2 deficit in the first period to a 4-4 tie in the second stanza. The Huskies Ahlsten's goal but Bob Bauer knotted the score at 5-5 and forced the overtime.

Goalie Gerry Powers, whose play was excellent in both of Denver's tournament victories, said he watched the university's ski team win NCAA trophies two years ago and "I vowed I'd never play again on anything but a championship team."

Armstrong paid special tribute to Powers, defenseman Keith Magnuson and center Bob Trembecky, all of whom closed out their collegiate hockey careers.

Powers, Magnuson, Thembecky and forward Tom Miller were named to the all-tournament team along with wing Brian Cornell and defenseman Bruce Pattison of Cornell. Magnuson was voted the Most Valuable Player.

Cornell, Eastern Collegiate Hockey Association champion, never did get a lead over the defending champs. But the Ithacans twice tied the score at 1-1 and 2-2 before Denver broke it open in the first 12 minutes of the final period.

The defeat was only the second of the season for Cornell. The Ivy League team won 25 in a row and finished with 27 triumphs.

Marichal Ends Holdout; Triumphs In 1st Outing

By The Associated Press

Juan Marichal, who waited two weeks for the San Francisco Giants to pay his price, has served shorter notice on National League hitters.

Marichal, who signed a $115,000 contract Sunday night, ending a two-week holdout, hurled four perfect innings Sunday in the Giants' 9-2 exhibition victory over the Chicago Cubs.

The 30-year-old Giants ace, 26-9 last season, threw only an occasional fastball in his spring debut but disposed of the 12 Cubs he faced on 41 pitches. "I figured if I got it over, I'd get somebody out," he said. "They'd hit it somewhere, maybe over the fence."

The Cubs hit three fair balls out of the infield while Marichal was on the mound.

Elsewhere, the Baltimore Orioles and Cleveland Indians kept exhibition winning streaks alive—with considerably less ease than Marichal and the Giants tamed the Cubs.

Eighth-inning doubles by Brooks Robinson and Merv Rettenmund keyed a two-run rally that carried the Orioles past Cincinnati 3-2 for their sixth straight victory. Cleveland outlasted California 14-10, running its string to seven, in a struggle that produced 26 hits, 13 walks and eight errors.

Atlanta nipped Washington 4-3, pinning Ted Williams' Senators with their ninth loss in 10 starts; Kansas City shaded the Pittsburgh B team 2-1; the New York Yankees topped Detroit 5-3; Oakland bombed Seattle 13-6; Los Angeles shaded the Chicago White Sox 3-1 and San Diego beat Arizona Western College 6-1.

Rain washed out four scheduled games—Houston-Minnesota, Montreal-New York Mets, Philadelphia-Pittsburgh and St. Louis-Boston.

Trailing 2-1 in the eighth, the Orioles slipped past Cincinnati on Dave May's two-out single and the doubles by Robinson and Rettenmund. Dave Nelson paced Cleveland's 13-hit attack with four singles in as many trips to the plate.

The Braves scored twice in the seventh to overcome a 3-2 Washington lead, Hank Aaron driving in the go-ahead run with a sacrifice fly. Pinch hitter Ed Kirkpatrick tripled home two runs in the eighth, powering Kansas City past the Pirates B squad.

A five-run sixth inning burst, triggered by Billy Cowan's two-run single, and newcomer Mike Kekich's strong pitching enabled the Yanks to get by Detroit. Jim Pagliaroni led the Oakland assault against Seattle with a double and three singles. Tommy Davis had a triple, double and two singles for the losers.

Willie Davis stroked three hits as the Dodgers trimmed the White Sox at Nassau, the Bahamas. Singles by Tom Haller and rookie Bill Russell and a sacrifice fly by Jim Lefebvre delivered the Los Angeles runs.

Four San Diego pitchers—Dave Roberts, Dick James, Fred Kapawczik and Dick Dare—combined for a six-hitter and Tony Gonzalez, the Padres' wild card pinch hitter poked a two-run single against Arizona Western.

Pistons Extend Winless Streak

By The Associated Press

By the time they got to Phoenix, the Detroit Pistons probably wished today they were sleeping ... so they could perhaps forget for a time the disasterous National Basketball Association nightmare they are living.

The Pistons, who meet Phoenix in their third to last NBA contest of the season tonight, suffered their fifth straight defeat Sunday night, losing to San Diego 120-111. It was the fourth loss on a tour of the West, begun a week ago.

Don Kojis, who led San Diego to victory over Detroit Thursday by scoring 33, hit 34 points Sunday to devastate the Pistons.

The victory, the Rockets' third straight, gave them a 1½-game lead over Chicago in the battle for fourth place in the Western Division — the final playoff berth.

Detroit is in sixth place in the East Division, 27 games behind front-running Baltimore. Only Milwaukee, 31 games back in the East, and Phoenix, 37 behind in the West, have worse NBA records.

In other NBA games Sunday, Los Angeles bombarded Boston 108-73, and the Atlanta Hawks edged Seattle 131-127 in overtime.

In the American Basketball Association, Indiana mauled Minnesota 114-113, Denver whipped Oakland 131-119, Dallas took Kentucky 104-100, and Miami beat New York 116-103.

In the game at San Diego, the Rockets had seven men in double figures for the first time in their two-year history.

Happy Hairston led Detroit with 22 points.

Elvin Hayes of San Diego, the league's leading scorer, collected 15 points but sat out the last 11 minutes with a muscle strain in his left leg. The injury was not considered serious.

Los Angeles rookie Bill Hewitt, the Lakers' No. 1 draft choice last year, led the way with 19 points as teammates Elgin Baylor got 17, Jerry West 14 and Wilt Chamberlain 11 in the victory over Boston.

The Lakers flashed to a 55-36 halftime lead at Boston and went on to hand the Celtics their 34th setback of the season. With four games remaining, the defending NBA champs are two losses short of their 1955-club record.

Lou Hudson scored nine of the 25 points in overtime, leading the Hawks past Seattle after they had blown a 19-point third quarter lead. Joe Caldwell also hit for 25 Atlanta points while Art Harris was high for the SuperSonics with 31-18 of them in the third period.

In Saturday action, Baltimore edged Boston 99-98, Philadelphia nipped Atlanta 122-120, New York turned back Cincinnati 121-108, Chicago whipped Seattle 101-83 and San Diego overwhelmed Phoenix 141-124.

Wisconsin's new athletic director, Elroy 'Crazy Legs' Hirsch, won four varsity letters in one season at Michigan.

Governors Meet To Discuss Low-Cost Housing

LANSING (AP) — Plans for construction of 200,000 to 300,000 low-cost housing units was the topic discussed at a meeting of seven governors in Washington Saturday, Gov. William Milliken has revealed.

The meeting, at the residence of New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, was attended by governors of Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Minnesota and Illinois.

According to a story in the Sunday Detroit News, joint production schedules were discussed. In the arrangement, the states would get volume savings and a long-range commitment from manufacturers. The housing would be for low-income persons.

The Michigan commitment reportedly is less than the New York-slated 50,000 units. With the federal government acting as liaison, the governors are to meet with manufacturers.

The governors' plan comes after an announcement Friday in Detroit that 1,000 low-cost townhouses will be built in the city by next summer.

How Carolina Lady Relieved Painful, Itching Piles

Treatment Shrinks Piles, Relieves Pain In Most Cases

Mrs. C. McKinney of Rutherfordton, N.C. says: "Preparation H relieved my pain and stopped my itching. I can now work and be comfortable. I've told lots of friends who've had the same results."

(Note: Doctors have proved in most cases — Preparation H® actually shrinks inflamed hemorrhoids. In case after case, the sufferer first notices prompt relief from pain, burning and itching. Then swelling is gently reduced.

There's no other formula for the treatment of hemorrhoids like doctor-tested Preparation H. It also lubricates to make bowel movements more comfortable, soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection. In ointment or suppository form.)

Air Crash Kills 7 From State

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Seven persons from Michigan — including two married couples from the Battle Creek area — were tentatively identified as among the casualties in Sunday's air crash in Venezuela, labeled the worst in the history of aviation.

Immigration authorities at Caracas International Airport listed Michigan connections with six casualties. The U. S. Embassy reported the name of a woman, apparently related to one of the six.

Two executives who worked in Battle Creek for the Clark Equipment Co. industrial truck division in Battle Creek and their wives were on board the plane that crashed in Maracaibo, Venezuela. An estimated 150 persons were killed, including 47 persons believed to be Americans.

The couples were Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Davidson Jr. of Battle Creek, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Brown Jr. of Marshall, Mich., Brown was general product manager of Clark and Davidson was marketing and servicing manager in Battle Creek.

Robert J. Braun, president and general manager of Clark's Battle Creek division, confirmed they were among the five Clark couples on the plane.

The others were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ashmore of Virginia Beach, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. William Benjamin, also of Virginia Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Venezia of Chattanooga, Tenn.

Immigration authorities said among the first 27 of American victims identified were Joseph Flint Rice of Michigan, whose passport was issued in Los Angeles, and Basil Richard Deelsnyder, of Michigan. No home towns were given for the two men.

The U.S. embassy identified another passenger as Jane Deelsynder.

A Clark spokesman said the five Clark couples were returning from a sales incentive meeting in Caracas, Venezuela. The company manufacturers industrial trucks.

A neighbor of the Brown family said they left for Venezuela March 8.

Colorful Steal

MIAMI (AP) — A semitrailer truck stolen from a truck stop Sunday was painted green with lavender stripes. Its cargo, 10 tons of beef and lamb valued at $50,000, will be harder to track down.

BIDS WANTED

The Board of Education of the Escanaba Area Public Schools will receive sealed bids not later than April 1, 1969, for two (2) 1969 model, 66-passenger conventional-type school buses. Specifications may be obtained at the Bus Garage, 2325 6th Ave. N., Escanaba. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Riot-Control Squad A Reality

CHICAGO (AP) — It took him almost two years, but the sheriff of Cook County (Chicago) finally has a volunteer riot-control force. It's outfitted in khaki uniforms with black berets and scarves and paratroop-type boots.

Sheriff Joseph I. Woods has circumvented a Circuit Court decision, which held last year that a proposed 1,000-man riot control unit was illegal under the Illinois Constitution.

At the time, Woods, a Republican, received sharp criticism from Mayor Richard J. Daley, a Democrat, and irate citizens sought and won the court injunction barring the unit's formation.

Woods is a former Marine who values the training he received.

He proposed his volunteer force after the summer of 1967, when the western suburb of Maywood was disturbed by racial strife. At that time, Woods recruited some 250 bailiffs and process servers employed by his department to bolster his approximately 250 regulars.

Woods says that relatively untrained and unorganized reserve riot force now has turned into a sharp-looking and well-trained 120-man riot control force.

At the unit's first review over the weekend Woods told the men: "I am delighted with what you look like. I am very delighted with what you have done."

The service is voluntary. The men train on Saturdays and are instructed by sheriff's police and the FBI in crowd control, firearms handling, riot tactics, judo and karate.

Electrocuted

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — Dennis Michael Pisciotta, 22, died an hour after he was found unconscious in the back yard of his parents' home where he had been flying a kite Sunday.

Police said the kite string, containing a metallic filament, touched a 12,000-volt power line.

We express our sympathy for those who suffered so grievously from the disastrous fire in our block on Sunday, March 16th. We offer our assistance to them.

We greatly appreciate the many offers to provide storage for our records and equipment, the offers of trucks to move material to a safe place, and the assistance given by many in moving records and equipment to trucks and then to a safe place, at a time when our building appeared to be in danger.

We are thankful that this generous and timely assistance proved fortunately to be unnecessary. Our thanks to you.
